

Life Memberships Now Available in E O Wheat League

Life memberships in the Eastern Oregon Wheat league are now available under a new plan adopted by the league at its annual meeting in Arlington in December, announces Werner Rietmann, executive committeeman for Morrow county. Many wheat growers had been paying their dues in advance and had expressed the desire for a life membership option to do away with annual payments, says Mr. Rietmann.

The life membership is strictly optional as the annual membership fee of $1 per year is still in effect. For those who desire the life payment, the following scale applies, according to age: for those 20 to 34 years, inclusive, $25; 35 to 49, $18; 50 to 64, $8; and 65 and over,

$5. Life membership cards are being prepared and will be ready for distribution soon to those qualifying for them, according to word from Chas. W. Smith, secretary.

More than 200 members paid dues at the Arlington meeting, including several who took out life memberships after the plan was adopted. County committeemen are now contacting those who could not attend the session. Printed proceedings which include the addresses given and reports adopted at the meeting will be distributed some time late this month.

Last year Morrow county had 100 paid-up memberships in the wheat league. Mr. Rietmann says he hopes this number can be equalled or excelled in 1945.

BROWNIES READ IMPORTANCE OF GOOD PENMANSHIP

At their regular meeting, held in the basement of the Methodist church Saturday afternoon, Brownie Girl Scout troop 2 heard the reading of "The Importance of Good Penmanship" and spent some time discussing the subject.

A letter written in 1824 was shown. It is the property of Philip Cohn and was given him by the late B. R. Patterson. The paper is yellow with age and the ink is brown but the letter is clearly legible. It has been framed with glass on both sides to make it readable without handling the paper. Postage free is printed in one corner and the paper makes its own envelope.

Following the program singing games were played, with Harriet Ball presiding at the piano. Clay modeling also occupied part of the time. The Brownies will meet next on Feb. 10.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS IN DEMAND FOR COUNTY

Farm census enumerators are badly needed in many outside districts of Morrow county, according to Mrs. Lena E. Bowers, assistant supervisor. This work can be accomplished by anyone able to work part time or full time. Anyone interested is asked to write the Bureau of census, Burns, Ore., which will send an instructor to help.

Completion of this project is vital to the farmers and businesses of the nation as future production rates may be determined by facts learned from the census, the director stated.

Mrs. Bowers spent several days here last week and reports the work is nicely started.
