From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Definition of a Great Man

At Bill Webster's the other evening, we were kidding Bill about his children always saying that their pop's "a great man."

"Well, the kids are right," chuckles Bill. "Everybody in America's a great man. You just can't be part of greatness and not share in it."

In America (argues Bill) things that used to belong only to the great are common property: a share in government through the right to vote; individual liberties guaranteed by constitution; freedom to speak one's mind; to work at what one pleases; to choose what one likes to eat or drink... whether beer or buttermilk.

But from where I sit, there's one important point to add... to make Bill's definition ring true. We must be worthy of this greatness. We must have the humility to appreciate these blessings... never abuse them with intolerance, intemperance, or indifference.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Schwarz and son from The Dalles were visiting Sunday at the homes of Billy's father, Henry Schwarz and brother, Leonard Schwarz. Billy expects to go into service shortly after the middle of the month.

WORD OF APPRECIATION

In retiring from the cafe business where we will not be meeting our friends from day to day, we want to express our appreciation for the generosity of the Heppner public and for the many courtesies and friendly business and social relations throughout our residence here. We are not saying goodbye, for we expect to be back.

How can a motor oil save gasoline?

Much gasoline loss is caused by gradual ring and cylinder wear. Gas mixtures then "blow-by," compression is reduced, performance gets rough. RPM Motor Oil slows this wear 'way down—sticks tight on hot or cold metal surfaces, insures cold motors against extra starting wear, protects critical hot spots on long runs. For more mileage, less wear—use Standard's RPM Motor Oil.
