Camp Wetmore News

By Mrs. Arthur Watkins
The stormy March found Wetmore camp unusually quiet due to the spring vacation. Among those who have gone for a few days of shopping and recreation are: Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Samples and son Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rhoton; Mr. and Mrs. Finley Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Benton and son Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. Thomy Schoolcraft and Hazel; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weaver; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shannon and children; Mr. and Mrs. Algy Taylor and grandson Bob; Mr. and Mrs. Verne Randall; Mr. and

Mrs. Bill Banton and children.

While trucks and the "cats" are being overhauled, the train has been loaded at Spur Seven. This sometimes has a way of delaying our mail service but when the mail does come we do read.

Mrs. Stella Weir from Toppenish, Wash. is visiting her two daughters Bill Betts and Mrs. Riffel.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Provo have moved to Vancouver Wash. where they will make their future home. Larry Cook, our distinguished trouble shooter, finds pleasant strolling on the "side walks of Wetmore" these evenings while he is obliged to remain in camp, due to the tie-up of the speeder.

Mrs. Moore of Pendleton is visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore.

Arthur Watkins is again in the hospital at The Dalles recuperating from a serious operation.

M. Tanner is a new employe at Wetmore.

Mr. Northrup will be in Wetmore Camp every Wednesday to render any first aid service to all employes and their families. This will be greatly appreciated as we are far away from medical care.

Spring seems a long ways off in these hills, however the school children are looking for a dry place for the Easter Egg hunt. Many beautiful Easter posters have been made by the school children.

Attend the show Tuesday night. Sponsored by O. E. S. No. 32.
