BOARDMAN NEWS

By FRANCES SKOUBO

Mrs. R. S. Wilson was honored on her birthday Sunday when her son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs. Dave Johnston and granddaughter Duree, Mr and Mrs. Homer Baker and infant daughter Barbara Lee of Portland, and sister Mrs. Estie Weed of Condon, brother J. H. Montague and wife of Arlington, Mrs. Hattie Kindley of Arlington and granddaughter Karen McClaskey of The Dalles and Mildred Miller spent the day with her and gave her a wonderful birthday dinner.

Many of the high school students attended the track meet at Hermiston Thursday afternoon. Eldon Lilly held the highest individual score with 16 points winning first in broad jump making 20ft 4 inches, fourth in shot put, first in the 220 and 100 yard dashes. Participating also were Albert Ball, Archie Jones, Grady Bever, Edward McClellan and George Long.

Morrow county principals and janitors met in the Boardman schoolhouse Tuesday under the direction of Guy Davis, building supervisor of the Merford schools and sponsored by the state department of education.

Mabel and Shirley Peck returned from Portland where they were attending burial services for Mrs. Acres there.

Mrs. Earl Brigg returned from Pendleton after spending several days with her sister who is in the

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN WALLA WALLA

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Monday from the Emmanuel Lutheran church in Walla Walla for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Blahm, 83, who passed away at her home, 603, Pleasant street, early Saturday morning after a short illness.

She was born Jan. 14, 1862 in Krutsko, Russia and came to this country 53 years ago, settling at that time or shortly thereafter at Heppner, where with her husband she resided on a farm northwest of Heppner until 1919 when they moved to Walla Walla. Mr. Blahm died April 30, 1938.

A member of Emanuel Lutheran church, Walla Walla, she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John J. Brickner, Mrs. Otto Eggers and Mrs. Ed Czychold, all of Walla Walla; one son, William H. Blahm of Walla Walla; a brother, Henry Blahm of Walla Walla, and six grandchildren.

Evelyn Pearson returned to hospital there. Evelyn Pearson returned to school Tuesday after being confined at home due to a wound received when she ran a pitchfork through her foot.

Peter Farley former resident of Boardman who has been employed with the railroad at Umatilla has been transferred to Portland to work for the Southern Pacific.

The monthly grange meeting was held in the Greenfield grange hall Saturday evening with a large crowd in attendance. The program was sponsored by the high school under the direction of the teachers with a skit from their forthcoming play "The Man Who Came to Dinner," which will be given May 9 at the school house, a reading by Reeba Falconer, and a speech by Mildred Miller and Rozella.

J. K. Bullock of Pendleton is visiting his daughters, Mrs. A. E. McFarland and Miss Effie Bullock of Boardman this week.

Ed Souders, Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Stout's sister motored to Hermiston Sunday to see Mr. Stout and Billy McDonald who are confined there in the hospital. Mr. McDonald has been there for over a week suffering from a heart attack and Mr. Stout has been there since he and his wife were struck by an automobile while enroute to Hermiston some time ago. Mrs. Stout is now at home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McFarland motored to Pendleton on business Thursday.

Keith Tannehill, Earl Falconer, Tommy Beaver, Don Gillespie, Otto Falconer, Kent Linn, Gerald and Darrell Marlow, Max Fussel, Bud Hendricks, Junior Graham, Walter Shimmel, Bob Robertson, Leo Skoubo, Delmer Hug, Jerry Beaver, Robert Fortner, Delbert Tyler were a group of Boy Scouts who, accompanied by Mr. Beaver, went on an outing down the river Saturday night.

RECENT ARRIVALS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. McDonald have recently come to Heppner from Roseburg, Ore. where they were in the garage business. Mr. McDonald's health did not permit him to continue in his work and they have come to Heppner for treatments. They are making their home in the McNamee apartments.

TENDERFOOT CLASS RAISED TO GIRL SCOUT STATUS

Girl Scout troop II recently held a "Fly Up" ceremony at which time 14 Brownies having passed the Tenderfoot test received their Girl Scout pins. Membership cards were given to all members of the troop. As the troop was a year old there was a troop birthday cake and ice cream. Robin Patrol Leader Sally Cohn and Blue Bird Leader Genevieve Cox thanked the leaders and troop committee for the party and the troop sang toasts to each.

Saturday, April 21 a gypsy picnic was held. Starting from Mrs. Alva Jones' where 24 girls and seven adults met, the party followed a map hiking over hill and dale to the campsite—the Kemp Dick home. Here stories were told, games played and songs sung. As the troop sang "Dip Your Fingers in the Stew" a pot of hot stew was served from the outdoor fire place by the troop committee.

Leaders of this troop wish to remind the mothers and friends of the troop that we still take donations of waste fat for troop finances.

GUESTS AT HUGHES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marshal, of Vancouver, Wash., accompanied Mrs. Joe Hughes to Heppner Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are visiting their son, Pfc Keith Marshall, who in turn is spending Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will return to their home in Vancouver today, and Pfc Marshall will go on to Salt Lake City on Sunday for further orders.

GO TO THE DALLES

Mrs. Clifford W. Noble and grand daughter Beth have gone to The Dalles to visit Beth's paternal grandmother who is very seriously ill there.

HAS INJURED HAND

Robert Rhodes suffered a badly mashed finger in a logging accident Tuesday when a log rolled and caught his hand. He was brought to a local physician who dressed the injured member for him.
