Mrs. Bechdolt Was Resident of County Nearly Half Century

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock p. m. Sunday from the I. O. O. F. hall in Hardman for Mrs. W. W. Bechdolt who passed away Thursday, April 26 at the family home in Boardman. O. Wendell Herbison officiated and music was provided by Mrs. Robert Walker and Miss Marie Barlow. Arrangements were in charge of Phelps Funeral Home.

Jennie Simpson was born Sept. 9, 1869 at Shebance, Ill. She married Will W. Bechdolt on April 12, 1898, and they came west that fall, locating on a homestead near Hardman. In later years they moved to Heppner to educate their sons, and in 1932 bought a place at Boardman. During their residence there Mrs. Bechdolt was a faithful worker in the Community church as well as taking part in civic affairs.

Surviving are the husband and two sons, Archie Bechdolt of Hardman and Adrian Bechdolt, of Boardman, a sister, Mrs. E. J. Merrill of Heppner, and two brothers, Ray and Sherrie Simpson of Indiana.

NEW OIL DISTRIBUTOR TAKES OVER IONE PLANT

Announcement is made this week of the appointment of Gordon A. White as representative of the Standard Oil company at Ione. Although White took over on March 11, official announcement was delayed pending receipt of advertising copy which may be found in this issue of the Gazette Times, and which was placed by J. E. West, branch manager for Standard at The Dalles.

White is no stranger to the people of Ione and vicinity. He spent nine years with the Braden-Bell Tractor and Equipment company at Arlington and is an expert in diesel and automotive equipment work. He has a family of four children.

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Twelve little girls were invited to help Lola Paderg celebrate her 10th birthday Tuesday, May 1. Games were played and refreshments of ice cream, cookies and pop were served at the Elkhorn restaurant. Later the group attended the theater. Joan Clark and Juanita Padberg were hostesses for the party.

IMPROVING PROPERTY

The R. L. Bengtson home at the corner of Willow and Gale streets is undergoing some improvement work that has enhanced the appearance materially. First, the cork elm trees along the front of the property which were gradually uprooting the sidewalk, were cut down. Next a new roof was put on the house, followed with a coat of paint, "brightening up the corner where you are," as it were.

A SHORT VACATION

Miss Dorothea Wilson spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilson. She came up Friday night from Portland and returned to the city Saturday night. Fishing was on her schedule as well as a little horseback riding, but due to the shortness of her visit had to settle for the horseback ride.

WE HAVE NEW TOP MATERIAL for all the older model cars. Rosewall Motor Company.
