

BROTHER DIES IN SEATTLE

Mrs. Harvey Bauman, accompanied by her daughter Carolyn, left Wednesday by stage for Seattle where she was summoned by the death of her oldest brother, Elmer H. Cool. Mr. Cool received a medical discharge from the army last December and returned to his home in Seattle where he has been working since that time. Funeral services and burial will take place in Seattle Friday afternoon.

The deceased leaves to mourn his passing, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cool of Seattle; five brothers, John Cool, Dayton, Wash.; Wm. Cool, Joseph, Ore.; Delbert Cool, Shelby Mont.; Alvin Cool Seattle James Cool, Colton, Wash.;

four sisters, Mrs. Opal Smith, John Day, Ore.; Mrs. Mabel Tachell, Seattle; Miss Maude Cool, Carlton, Wash., and Mrs. Harvey Bauman.

The Cool family lived in Ione previous to their moving to the Puget Sound city.

Aaron Pickering has returned to his family in Heppner after serving upwards of three years with the Seabees. Because of his age (he is a married man with a grown family) he was among the earlier ones to be given a discharge under the new demobilization plan. Information has not been passed this way, but it is a safe guess Mr. Pickering had the required 85 points.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Dan Culpin Gets His Second Wind

Dan Culpin got his plowing done in record time this year. He was sitting on his porch, enjoying a well-deserved glass of beer, while Bob Wirts, his neighbor, still had over an acre to go.

It burned Bob up, seeing Dan relaxed while he worked. So he'd stop and have a glass of cider—and make out that he was in no hurry anyway.

"And that was the trouble," Dan explained to me. "I kept on going till I got my second wind; and saved my rest until the job was done. He stopped to rest—and he never got his second wind."

From where I sit, there's a moral there for all of us. We've been working hard to win this war. A little rest may look awfully tempting. But by keeping going, by never letting up, we can count on getting our second wind that will overcome weariness and see us through to Victory.

Worthwhile Exercises For Graders Advance

Mrs. George Corwin gave the address of the evening to the eighth grade graduating class Wednesday evening, May 23. Mrs. Corwin offered her congratulations to the class and told them that they like thousands of other students in small towns throughout the nation could be proud of their heritage. They have come to the fore in difficult times, but have had the example of the great men of history, Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson and others to spur them on.

Mrs. Chris Brown made the American Legion award and it was based on three things: an essay on Thomas Jefferson, scholarship and citizenship. The award this year went to Bobby Bennett, first and Karl Gabler, second for the boys and Lois Key was first with Patricia Pearson second for the girls. Bobby Bennett also had the honor of having his name placed on the honorary plaque.

Those finishing the eighth grade were Garry Couture, Joanne Blake, Patricia Pearson, Karl Gabler, Dorothy Keeney, Francis Plumondore, Mary Mollahan, Bobby Bennett, Roy Carter, Beverley Eberhardt, Cecil Rill, Barbara June Slocum, Lois Fay Key, Charles Daniels, Jean Hanna, Patty Kirk, Vernon Padberg, Marie Oldfield, Imogene Hendrix, Merlene Miller, Barbara Ann Sherman and Bobby Jones.

SERVE TEA TO MOTHERS

Troop 3, Girl Scouts, served tea to their mothers and sponsors at the parish house Saturday afternoon, My 12. At this time they paid special tribute to their mothers and also displayed some of their accomplishments of the past year.

Serving at the attractively appointed tea table were Marjorie Bauman and Darlene Weise.
