Joan and Lauren Corwin went to Hood River Monday where they plan to put in a very busy summer at the ranch of their grandparents. Lauren has been a regular hand there in previous summers and feels pretty sure things would quickly go pretty much to pot if he failed to appear. The young people are the elder son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Corwin.

Mrs. Len Gilman and little son are visiting this week in Ione with Mrs. Gilman's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Davidson.

HONOR AWARDS

Ferguson went the honor of having her name inscribed on the honor plaque.

Ted Ferguson, president of the senior class, presented the student body with a beautiful plaque from the seniors upon which are the names of three alumni who have made the supreme sacrifice. The names include Ernest Clark, killed in a plane crash in this country; Raymond Kay Ferguson, killed in action in Belgium and Rhea Norton King, killed in action in Italy.

Charles W. Barlow, chairman of the school board presented the diplomas.

Mrs. J. O. Turner played Allegro by Chopin, for her prelude. The girls' chorus under the direction of Miss Rose Hoosier, sang Beauteous Night, Offenbach and Ode Triumphant, Brahms.

AN APPRECIATION

In the excitement of the fire Friday evening it was impossible to see and remember all who took part in saving my residence from serious damage and I take this one who in any way contributed means of thanking each and every services in my behalf.

Mrs. Cyrene Barratt.

WORD OF APPRECIATION

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the people of Heppner for their quick and generous response in our great need. It is indeed comforting to be among such fine neighbors and friends.

Slaughter Permits Urged on Farmers

Farmers who slaughter meat for sale, transfer or gift, or expect to, are urged by P A Mollahan, chairman of the local OPA board to file an application for a permit at once with the local board if they have not already done so.

"Applications for permits for Class III slaughterers will not be taken after the July 1 deadline," Mollahan emphasized. He pointed out that farm slaughterers who did not apply by May 13 may not sell or transfer meat until they get their applications in, and that farmers should not put off meeting this requirement any longer and risk losing the chance to get a license or permit.

HERE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Mrs. Percy Hughes was a guest of her sons Edwin and Arthur and their families a few days this week. She came from her home in Milton and was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. L. Talbot of Portland who has been her house guest. Mrs. Hughes, in her official capacity as president of the Church Women's Service League of the eastern Oregon diocese, will be the guest of the Episcopal guild at Hood River Friday afternoon. She will spend a few days in Portland before returning to her home.

IN THE DALLES HOSPITAL

Mrs. Rose Eskelson is a patient at The Dalles hospital where she suffered an operation the first of the week. Her brother, R. L. Benge, returned home Wednesday evening from her bedside and reported her condition as very serious.

This Summer

I shall conduct my flower business from my home at 107 Cannon street during mornings and evenings and from the Court Apartments, No. 9 Court street, during the afternoons.

Both addresses have telephones on the same line, so I can be reached by calling 2502.

Large plantings of annuals, perennials, and gladiolus will enable me to supply local flowers in season. For special flowers please order before 3 p. m. of the preceding day so the flowers can be obtained from out-of-town.

I surely appreciate the patronage and encouragement given my flower business by my many customers, and solicit your future orders for CORSAGES, CUT-FLOWERS, PLANTS, OUT-OF-TOWN DELIVERIES, AND FUNERAL PIECES.

OREGON'S quota in the 7th War Loan is much larger than that of any previous War Loan.

This is because MORE MONEY IS NEEDED, and there will be but TWO War Loan Drives this year instead of three.
