TALK OVER SCHOOL DAYS
Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neill invited a group of former high school students to their home Friday evening honoring Mrs. Neill's son, Sgt. Guy Moore, recently returned from the European theater, who with Mrs. Moore and their 18-month-old son were guests in the Neill home. The evening was spent in reminiscing over school days, the group having such a good time visiting that no other form of entertainment was needed Refreshments were served at a late hour. Sgt. Moore and family are spending a few days at Wallowa lake getting acquainted. The sergeant has a 30-day furlough before reporting for reassignment.

ONE IN FOUR VOTED

The official canvas of the June 22 special election was made Monday by Acting Governor Belton and Secretary of State Farrell. The building fund carried in all counties. The cigarette tax carried in 19 counties and lost in 17 heavily populated counties. Only 130,049 of the 560,536 registered voters bothered to go to he polls.

NEW ATTORNEYS
