SETTLE AT CARSON

A letter from Mrs. John Skuzeski informs this newspaper that they have moved to Carson, Wash., where they own property and will make their permanent home. Since leaving Heppner the Skuzeskis have been in San Francisco but because of Mr. Skuzeski's health thought it best to get out of the city. They purchased property at Carson, some time before leaving Heppner and will take possession this week-end. Mrs. Skuzeski sent greetings to their many Morrow County friends.

JOINS HONORARY SOCIETY

Mrs. Verle Frederickson of Heppner has been elected to Omicron Pi Omega, an honorary social organization for students at the Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, according to information coming from the college this week.

Miss Margaret Gillis, county public health nurse, is on vacation and Newport and Delake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graham and son Michael of Salem and Sgt. William Burchell of Portland were guests last week of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Burchell.

Sgt. Don Rowe, home on an emergency 30-day furlough, spent a few days in Heppner at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Noble and his little daughter. After spending Friday and Saturday here he went to The Dalles to visit his mother who is ill in a hospital there. He will return to have more time with his little girl.

After spending 25 months in the south Pacific, Wilford Plumondore is home for 30 days, arriving Sunday. He flew from the island of Luzon to San Francisco.

Sgt. and Mrs. John McRoberts are visiting this week at the F. H. Prock home.

NEW AAA CLERK

Mary Kay Blake has accepted the position of office clerk in the Triple A office, succeeding Harriet Hager, resigned. Miss Blake was a member of the 1945 graduating class at Oregon State college and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake of Heppner. Miss Hager, whose marriage is scheduled for the near future held the position for four years.

Phil Griffin is home from the hospital in Portland where he has been receiving treatment for some time. While not able to engage in farm work he is acting in the capacity of supervisor during the harvest season.

J. R. Forden of Hood River and his daughter, Miss Eleanor Forden of Portland were guests over the week-end at the George Corwin home. The guests are Mrs. Corwin's father and sister. Mrs. Forden has been here a few weeks and stayed on for a while longer after the other guests returned to their homes. Mrs. Forden is recovering from a serious illness.

Mrs. Joe Hughes is expecting her sister, Mrs. R. B. McKeown and son Johnny to arrive Friday to visit at the Hughes home over Sunday. They are on their way home from eastern points where they visited Mrs. McKeown's daughters. They reside in Sacramento.

Garland Potter of Condon was in Heppner Monday attending to matters of business.

OUR BREAKFAST IS TOPS WITH THE 7 A. M. CROWD

A wartime worker needs every bit of energy which a nutritious meal supplies. Stop in before your regular shift and go to work prepared to deliver a big day's work.

HEPPNER CAFE

Our Diners Resemble J. Spratt and Wife

Remember the nursery rhyme about the couple who licked the platter clean? Unusual? No! Our patrons enjoy doing it every day.

MEAL HOURS: 12 to 2 p. m. and 6 to 8 p. m.

Elkhorn Restaurant

Thank You, People of Heppner and Morrow County!

It was our desire to have our new store strike a popular chord with the people of Heppner and Morrow county, but we had not anticipated such a hearty reception. We wish to thank you for the many expressions of well-wishing and for the healthy business we have enjoyed since opening our doors to the public. Especially do we thank the business firms who helped brighten our store on opening day with floral offerings.

With this auspicious beginning we feel obligated to direct our efforts towards giving the community the best service within our power to offer and warrant your full confidence in us.

We are adding new stock almost daily and will have a complete line as soon as war releases permit resumption of manufacture.
