

LIFE WAS JUST A BOWL OF CHERRIES

Due to an oversight of the line-type operator this item should have appeared in last week's issue. She offers him her apologies.

This office is deeply indebted to Lauren Corwin for a beautiful box—no, that doesn't sound right—a box of beautiful cherries, product of his grandfather's fruit farm in the Hood River valley. Life around the little old shop has been "just a bowl of cherries" all week now and the staff can testify that the Hood River fruit may have rivals in other sections but certainly no peers. This is by way of saying "thank you" to our erstwhile stereotypist and to compliment him on his ability to select and pack fruit.
