Sunday Day of Weddings in Heppner . .

Heppner's Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful afternoon wedding Sunday when Miss Harriet Hager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Osmin Hager, exchanged marriage vows with Major Clayton Shaw, United States Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shaw of Portland, formerly of Walla Walla.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Marjorie Sims played incidental music and also accompanied her sister, Miss Florence Sims who sang "At Dawning" by Cadman and d'Hardelot's "Because".

Miss Mary Kay Blake lighted the tapers which, amid baskets of gladioli, adorned the altar.

The bride, who was a lovely picture in her white satin gown and veil, was escorted by her father and attended by Mrs. Willard Blake, and was met at the altar by the groom and his brother, Lt. (jg) Wesley Shaw. The impressive double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Fletcher Forster in the presence of a capacity gathering of relatives and friends of both families.

Following the wedding the guests assembled at the Hager home to felicitate the bride and groom. About one hundred and twenty-five people attended the reception.

Sunday's event was the culmination of a romance which had its inception on the campus of Oregon State college where the bride was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma and the groom Sigma Nu. Mr. Shaw is a graduate in secretarial science but was called into the army at once and has served in the Pacific area over three years.

Harriet has grown to young womanhood in Heppner. While she awaited her fiancé's return from the war zone she was employed in the office of the county agent.

Major and Mrs. Shaw went to Walla Walla Sunday evening for a few days. They will go on to Portland later for a portion of the major's 45 day furlough.

Many out of town guests were present for the wedding including the groom's parents and other relatives from points in Washington. All departed for their homes Sunday evening.

Adele Nickerson Hayes and Richard Hayes were married Sunday morning at the Christian church in the presence of a few relatives and friends. O. Wendell Herbison, pastor of the Church of Christ officiated. The bridal couple were attended by the groom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hayes of Ordinance.

Mrs. Robert Walker sang "Thru the Years" and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Marie Barlow who also played the wedding marches.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Lucas Place to the members of the wedding party and relatives.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will return to Heppner to make their home.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Nickerson and the late Mr. Nickerson. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes and has recently received his discharge from the army where he saw service in the Pacific theater. He is employed at Rosewall Motor company.

DILLINGSEN, GERMANY—One of the voices heard in the 66th Infantry's hit musical production, Danube Sym-follie, now entertaining American troops in Europe, belongs to Sgt. John R. O'Harra, who is a former student of the University of Oregon.

O'Harra is a member of the "Glee men", a chorus of 71 voices which stars in the infantrymen's musical comedy. He has already appeared in the show with thousands of soldiers stationed in Nordlingen, Augsburg, Dillingen, Hochstadt, Neuburg, and other Bavarian cities and towns.

The Oregon soldier joined the cast of the show at Steyer, Austria, where his division, the 71st had gained distinction of penetrating farther east in Europe, than any other American ground forces unit by V.E. day. O'Harra won the combat infantryman's badge and two campaign stars for the European Theater of Operations ribbon.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Harra reside in Lexington.
