Round-Up Beauty Queen

Pendleton, Aug. 3—Riding in the Indian section of the Pendleton Round-Up parades Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15 will be lovely Delores Stevens, winner of the 1944 American Beauty contest at the Pendleton show.

Only at the Round-Up is such a contest held; it's for full-blood Indian girls, real American beauties, and one of the rules is that the winner may be queen only once. So Delores will not be in competition this year but will be accorded special honors as 1944 queen. The contest is a feature of Friday's show, when scores of Indian beauties ride before the grandstands for the approval of the judges. Contestants are judged not only for personal beauty, but for the splendor of their costumes and the elaborate trappings of their horses.
