BOARDMAN NEWS

By FRANCES SKOUBO

Graveside funeral services were held at the Boardman cemetery July 18 for Claude Myers, with Harry Thorpe in charge. Claude Myers was born June 23, 1872, in Edgar county, Ill., and died at Salem July 14, 1945, at the age of 73. Mr. Myers was a former resident of Boardman. He is survived by a sister.

Several business transactions have taken place in Boardman in the past few weeks. The Boardman Coffee Shop was reopened by Myral Anderson of Arlington. Lloyd Rinehart, former proprietor, moved to Portland last week where he plans to reside.

The Roseland cafe was sold to Ernie Knopp, former traffic officer for the state of Oregon. Slim Roseland, former proprietor, left Saturday for California where he will visit relatives. The Roselands have moved into the house on the lot west of the grange hall recently vacated by Ziral Gillespie.

Mrs. Elvin Ely and infant daughter Janice Eileen returned home Saturday from the Hermiston hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ely are very proud of little Eileen, who was born Aug. 6, weighing nine pounds two ounces. Mr. Ely is extra gang foreman at Condon and was able to spend several days with his family after Eileen's arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Allen left Sunday night for Camp Roberts, Calif. where they will visit their older son, Clayton, who is stationed there. From there the Allens plan to visit relatives in that state.

Mr. and Mrs. James Garvison and sons were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg. Mrs. Anderegg is Mr. Garvison's mother.

Mrs. Crystal Barlow and daughter Cleo returned home from Portland Tuesday after visiting friends there for several days.

Word was received by Mrs. Robertson that her younger son, Lyle, who is with the armed forces in Europe, will be home soon to spend a furlough with her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely of Morgan spent Sunday with the Elvin Ely family.

George Linn, principal of Boardman school, left Friday for Chicago to attend several weeks of school.

Pfc Alfred E. Turner of the US air corps stationed at Meridian, Miss., spent several days of his 24-day furlough with friends in Boardman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McFarland and grandchildren, Joyce and Merle McFarland of Umatilla, are spending several days at Depoe Bay. Mrs. McFarland has improved somewhat since being there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kainesto, Sherry and infant son Ronald are visiting the Paul DeMauro family while Bernie is on vacation.

Mrs. Wiley Brown returned home after being taken to The Dalles hospital with heart trouble.

Emil Ash, Gene Allen and "Little" Charles Marshall, who have been working with Vernie Jarell Construction, returned to Boardman this week after completing a job in Idaho.

LODGE TO MEET

According to Mrs. Roy Thomas, Noble Grand, Sans Souci Rebekah lodge will meet at 8 p. m. Friday in the I.O.O.F. hall.

Archdeacon Neville Blunt and Mrs. Blunt are expected to arrive home Saturday from a month's
