BOARDMAN NEWS

By FRANCES SKOUBO

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and family, Pauline and S Sgt Lawrence Smith of Union spent several days with friends on the project last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Skoubo and family drove to Hood River Thursday to visit the Martin Ekker family and to pick pears. From Hood River Erna and Leo Skoubo went to Portland where they will visit friends and relatives. The others returned home Friday.

A stork shower was given for Mrs. Leicht at the home of Geraldine Grawnquest Thursday evening. Many lovely gifts were presented.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johnston and daughter Duee of Portland, Karen John McClaskey of The Dalles and Audree Wilson visited the R. S. Wilson family over the week-end. Audree plans to be home for a couple of weeks before entering The Dalles high school for her junior year.

Mrs. George Linn and Mrs. Fortner left for Portland Monday by bus where they will visit friends and relatives.

W. W. Bechdolt is visiting with his sons Archie, and Adrien and wife in Hardman for a few days.

Mrs. Ray Grawnquest and Mrs. Jack Getz are now employed in the Knopp restaurant formerly run by Slim Roseland.

There seems to have been a considerable amount of celebration Tuesday night after the Japs' reply of surrender. The church bell rang several times during the night along with the car horns sounding and laughs and screams of Boardmanites. Service station, coffee shop and post office were open all Wednesday. No beer was sold in Boardman that day.

S Sgt Lawrence Smith who visited friends in Boardman for several days last week while on furlough from Camp Wolters, Texas, accompanied the Hamilton family to Union Saurday where the Hamiltons are visiting the Thorpe and Smith families for a few days.

Greenfield grange met Saturday night with Mrs. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Marlow, Effie Bullock and Mrs. Crowder as hosts. Plans were made for improvement of the hall by painting and completing the stage.

The Miller Bros. potato harvest of White Rose potatoes was completed Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier motored to Pendleton Sunday to celebrate their son Kenneth's birthday with him and his family.

Chuck's melon stand was opened last week. Mrs. Anderegg reported business to be unusually plentiful since the Japs reply of surrender and the elimination of gas rationing. Mrs. Ray Brown is helping Mrs. Anderegg in the stand.

Mrs. Josephine Rands was pleasantly surprised Thursday when her husband, Buster Rands of the U. S. Marine corps telephoned her from California. Buster has been on overseas duty for six months and was sent to the states for medical aid for his back.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ely of Morgan were Sunday visitors at the Elvin Ely home.

Mrs. Bill Buck returned from Portland after visiting friends and relatives there for several days.

Word was received Tuesday that Bill Harrington, resident of Boardman for 25 years, passed away in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Tuesday morning after suffering from several heart attacks.

Mrs. R. S. Wilson opened her melon stand last week down by Tom's camp. Mrs. Wilson is selling melons and cants in her stand this year.

Meals, sandwiches, ice cream and soft drinks are being served in the Coffee Shop after it was reopened by Myral Anderson last week. Mrs. Conoyers, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Chas. Roseland are waitresses. The place is open for all night service.
