

WIGHTMAN FRIENDS PICNIC AT MOUNTAIN RANCH

The Wightman ranch in the mountains was the scene of a big picnic Monday when several carloads of friends and neighbors drove out to spend Labor day. Members of the party included Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Elliott and family of Milton Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston, Mrs. Ada Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barlow and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drake, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Wendell Herbison and family. Mr. and Mrs. Wightman were invited to join the group for dinner and all told 32 people dined together.

HELP AT SCOTTY'S

Mr. and Mrs. Riley R. Richards of Portland have come to make their home in Heppner. Mrs. Richards is the daughter of Mrs. J. L. Hall and she and her husband will be employed at Scotty's. Mr. Richards' sister, Mrs. Lucile Long, is a guest of the Halls this week and is assisting at the eatery during the Rodeo. The Halls have moved to their new home on west Baltimore street.

Mrs. F. W. Turner is now a patient at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton where Mr. Turner took her Wednesday morning. Mrs. Turner has been rather miserable since returning from Portland and it was thought best to take her where she can have professional care for a few days.

Pine City, Irrigon Schools Running

Two schools of the county, Irrigon and Pine City, got the jump on the rest of the districts by opening this week. Most of the other schools will open Sept. 10, as announced last week.

Mrs. Adelaide Orange of Pilot Rock is in charge of the Pine City school, which cares for the children up to the eighth grade. Most of the high school students from the district attend the Echo high school.

Leroy Darling is the administrator of the Irrigon school. He has been music supervisor at LaGrande.

A new administrator has been secured for the Lexington school in the person of E. LeGrand Cherry.

At Ione, Supt. B. C. Forsythe has the teacher situation well in hand and is prepared to put the wheels of learning into motion Monday.

Registration of high school students opened at the Heppner school Wednesday afternoon and will continue through Friday afternoon, unless everybody rushes to get it over with today to be ready to attend the rodeo.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo returned home Wednesday after a week spent in Portland where the doctor attended a medical association meeting. They were accompanied by Mrs. R. B. Rice and granddaughter Eleanor.

Steward Cole spent the Labor day vacation visiting relatives and friends in Joseph.

What it takes to rain-proof roofs

"Weather" won't come through your roof if you seal the surface with Standard's tough coatings. Use Standard Asbestos Roof Coating for a top-quality job... Standard Roof Paint for economy. For best results, prime with Standard Utility Coating or Standard Priming Solution. Renew shingle roofs with Standard Shingle Stain or Oil.
