

Miss Wilkinson Becomes Bride at Morning Ceremony

All Saints Episcopal church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Monday morning when Frances Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson was united in marriage to Walter Oslund, United States Army. The double ring ceremony was used with Rev. Neville Blunt officiating.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli marked an aisle up to the altar before which the vows were exchanged. Lighted candles and white gladioli gleamed upon the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Shirley, was attractive in a soft green dressmaker suit with black accessories. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of white orchids.

An army friend of the groom, Captain Hackwood, acted as best man and Alex Thompson ushered. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Blunt and Mrs. Ture Peterson sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride was a member of the class of 1945 at Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta. She grew to young womanhood in Heppner being a graduate of the local high school.

Captain Oslund has but recently returned from 18 months active service in Italy. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on the campus. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Oslund of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Following the ceremony friends greeted the newly wedded couple in the vestibule of the church from whence they went to the Lucas Place for a wedding breakfast which was served to 30 guests.

Out of town guests attending the nine o'clock wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Oslund, Captain and Mrs. Hackwood of LaFayette Calif.; Fred Ball, of Fossil, grandfather of the bride; Miss Jessie Durston, Portland; Miss Harriet Joseph of Corona, Calif., and Richard Praenneke, CM2c from Iowa.

Following a honeymoon in California the young couple will go on to Alabama where Captain Oslund has to report for further assignment.

Kilkenny-Greenup Nuptials Event of Monday Morning

In the presence of their immediate families, Miss Colleen Kilkenny and Donald Greenup were united in marriage at St. Peter's Catholic church at 8 o'clock Monday morning with Rev. Francis McCormick officiating. Mrs. Ilene Laughlin, sister of the bride was matron of honor and Joe Farley was best man.

Following the ceremony the bridal party were served breakfast at the apartment of Mrs. Laughlin and then the young couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will return to Heppner to make their home on the Hinton creek ranch.

The bride is the younger daughter of the late John Kilkenny and Mrs. Kilkenny. She is a graduate of Heppner high school and was queen of this fall's rodeo where this past week end she and her attendants made a graceful picture.

For her wedding the bride chose a yellow suit with brown accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Laughlin wore a brown suit with a corsage of copper gladioli.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Price Greenup of Heppner. He has been employed on the Kilkenny ranch but has orders to report at Fort Lewis for induction Sept. 18.

HERE FROM UKIAH

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kirk of Ukiah were visitors Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Kirk. They recently received word of the loss of their only son, Jack, who was killed in a plane crash just before V-J day. Jack had many friends here among the younger set who deeply regret his passing.

Donald E. Turner Claims Bride in Chapel Ceremony

A wedding of interest to Heppner people was solemnized at four o'clock p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 12, in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church in Portland when Miss Janet Bell Roberts of Portland became the bride of Donald E. Turner of Heppner. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. E. Kempton, rector of Trinity church, and was witnessed by relatives of the contracting parties. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to coast points. They will make their home in Eugene where both are students at the University of Oregon.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lulu Roberts of Portland and the groom is a native Heppner boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner. Mrs. Turner will complete her course at the university with the class of 1946, while her husband has two more years at the law school.

Relatives attending the wedding from Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner and daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson and daughter Marylou, who was maid of honor, Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine and Mrs. C. C. Dunham.

The reason for our shortage in personals this week is because our star reporter is sojourning in the city for a few days. She'll be back on the job Monday.

Interested spectators at the Heppner Rodeo were Fay Legrow of Athna, president of the Pndleton Round-up, and Fay Hodges, manager of Happy Canyon, big night show of the Round-up.

Select choice staple foods and fresh crisp vegetables from our stocks and give your school age children the needed vitality for doing topnotch work.

CENTRAL MARKET and GROCERY

All-Purpose Rate
600 KWH @ 6/10¢

Here's a Great Feature of PP&L's New Low Rate for Homes and Farms!

No matter where you live on the PP&L system—in a city home or on one of the 13,000 farms served by this progressive Company—you now have available this new "all-purpose" rate that gives you tractor performance at wheelbarrow cost!

After the first 125 KWH you use any month in your home or on your farm, PP&L's "all-purpose" rate drops to only 1½ cents per kilowatt-hour for the next 125 KWH. Then it drops sharply again—down to only 6/10th of a cent per kilowatt-hour for the next 600 KWH. That means the 600 KWH block costs only $3.60! Think what you can do with all those kilowatt-hours when you really put electricity to work.

Start planning right now to get that electric range, that automatic water heater, and all the other labor-saving, comfort-giving electrical appliances that are now on the production lines.

Pacific Power & Light Company

YOUR BUSINESS-MANAGED POWER SYSTEM