

Rodeo Track Adds Zest to Races

It is one thing to have a fine string of race horses and quite another thing to have a good track for them to run on. In the case of the Heppner Rodeo spectators had an opportunity to see what fine running horses can do on a fast track, for this year, through the insistence of Frank Turner, the oval was put in first class condition for the races.

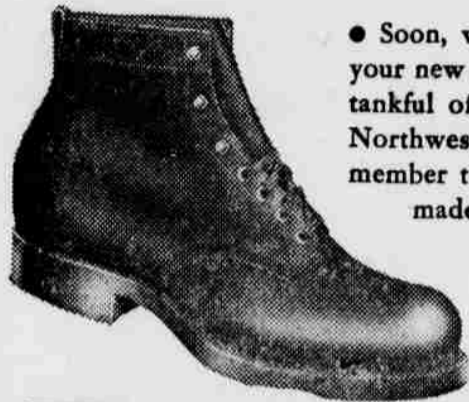

Not only did Turner insist that the track be put in first class shape he did much of the work and felt amply repaid for his services when race horse owners and riders commented favorably upon the fine condition of the turf. This was only one of Turner's activities in connection with preparations for the 1945 show but he is more satisfied with the track job than any of the others. He hopes that will be the only job he'll have in connection with next year's show.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

Mad Dogs and Wagging Tongues

The county had a "mad dog" scare last week. Phoebe Token's spaniel bit the postman, and he vowed that he was plenty mad about it.

But by the time the rumor got around, it wasn't the postman who was mad, it was the dog. And before the truth was learned, half the kids in the neighborhood had missed school, while their mothers nearly died of fright.

Wagging tongues can cause a lot of "mad dog" trouble. Like wagging tongues that gossip about our soldiers drinking too much around Army camps. It's just not true, as the government found out and told us. Milk and beer are among a soldier's favorite drinks—which is why we have the best behaved army in history. But those ugly rumors are bound to hurt morale and cause hard feeling.

From where I sit, wagging tongues can cause a heap more trouble than mad dogs.

Heppner Rodeo Association Upon presentation of the 21st annual Heppner Rodeo

Revival of the Heppner Rodeo, looked upon by many as a next to impossible task, has once again demonstrated the old axiom that "where there's a will there's a way." The Rodeo was a great success and this organization, speaking in behalf of the business interests and people of Heppner, takes this opportunity to congratulate the Rodeo Association for staging a fine show. Officers and directors of the association and all those who in any way contributed to the presentation of the Rodeo are deserving of much credit and the thanks of the community.
