

IONE NEWS NOTES

By Mrs. Echo Palmateer
The PTA held their regular meeting Wednesday night, Sept. 26. The following topic was discussed, "What the school expects of the parent and what the parent expects of the school." The band played two numbers under their leader, Miss O'Brian. Cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Ruby Kincaid, Mrs. Henry Peterson and Mrs. Henry Baker. The next meeting will be Nov. 5. An auction sale and program will be held about the middle of November to raise money for the hot lunches.

The Amec club met at the home of Mrs. Gary Tullis Sept. 26 with 12 members and one guest present. Pumpkin pie and coffee were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yarnell and sons Alton and Clifford returned last week from a trip to Portland, Seattle, Yakima and Pasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pomerantz who have been visiting over the week-end at the Henry Clark home left Monday for Los Angeles to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson of San Jose, Calif. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson. Mr. Nelson is a brother of Mrs. Troedson.

The Maranatha club will meet Oct. 13 at Mrs. Margaret Turner's at the Palmateer ranch.

The Topic club will hold its study meeting with Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Oct. 17. Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Victor Rietmann and Mrs. Agnes Wilcox are the other hostesses.

Three flights of racing pigeons were released Sunday morning by station agent A. J. Fisher. More will be turned loose at 7:00 a. m. next Sunday.

Joel Barlow's car was stolen and wrecked near the Wm. Seehafer ranch Sunday evening. Mrs. Seehafer reported the wreck to the sheriff and then drove to Ione to church. Later she found that her pick-up had been stolen. The party was captured at Arlington Monday.

The Ione high school football team played Helix at Helix Friday and lost 13-19.

Fred McMurray of Hermiston visited his brother Laxton who is ill. Those getting a deer so far were Delzells and Lonnie McCabe.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann and family spent the week-end in Spokane where they visited their nephew Van Rietmann who is in the hospital there.

Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Castleman spent a few days last week at Sunvalley.

Visitors at the H. O. Ely home at Morgan last week were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely of Marshfield and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halferty of Warrenton. The two Elys are brothers and Mrs. Ely, and Mrs. Halferty who is staying for an extended visit, are cousins.

A women's missionary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. Carlson at 2 p. m. Oct. 7. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The PNG club met Friday at the home of Mrs. Echo Palmateer with 12 members and 2 visitors present. Jello, cookies and coffee were served.

Preaching services are being held this week at the Cooperative church by Rev. E. C. Salter, pastor of Ardenwald church of Portland.

Mrs. Bernice Harris has purchased the Art Stefani house now occupied by the Whites.

A number of Rebekahs from Ione and Morgan attended the convention in Lexington Monday.

Those reported ill and in hospitals are Mrs. Robert Buchanan at The Dalles hospital and Mrs. Louis Bergevin at St. Anthonys in Pendleton.

Mrs. Joe Mason of Prineville visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Markham Baker and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom left Sunday for Portland to attend the grand chapter of Eastern Star which was held Monday and Tuesday.

Clarence Linn who was recently discharged from the army is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith of Morgan returned from an extended trip through Oregon and Washington.

Mrs. Mary Austin, English teacher received word that her son who has been in the armed forces in the Pacific is now in a hospital at Auburn, Calif.

Mrs. Bessie Everson states that her son Sgt Tom Everson is stationed at Sioux Falls S. D.

Last Friday was cleanup day at the Cooperative church. The stove was moved into the basement and made into a furnace which is a great improvement. It will heat both the church and the basement with less work.

Lexington Items

By MRS. MARY EDWARDS
Lt. Kenneth Jackson of the army air corps arrived home Tuesday, having received his discharge from the service.

T5 Melvin Lyle Allyn (Pinky) arrived home Friday from Camp Lewis. He has received an honorable discharge from the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones of Yakima were Lexington visitors over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt spent the week-end in Salem. They were accompanied by Louise Hunt and Estelle Ledbetter who are entering business college there.

Earl Taylor and son Keith of Portland arrived Monday at the Edwards home. They came up to go hunting. Keith has spent the last four years in the army and was in the south Pacific most of the time. He has his discharge and is hunting deer instead of Japs. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger and family spent several days in Portland last week.

Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. Adolph Majeske were Pendleton visitors one day last week.

Miss Audrey Majeske left Sunday morning for Salem where she will compete in a state wide 4-H club show.

Mrs. Martha Hicks was hostess for a surprise birthday party for her daughter Ramona Tuesday afternoon. Guests were members of the first and second grades.

Kenneth Way Sic left Thursday to report at his base at San Diego.

BOARDMAN NEWS

By Maxine Ely
Mrs. Gregory Daniels who is seriously ill was taken to The Dalles hospital Sunday evening.

Harley Miller of Myrtle Point is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phelps and children moved to Madras Monday. Mrs. Isabelle Davis and children of Ione visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fortner the first part of the week.

Lester Thorpe of the navy returned to San Francisco Sunday after spending a 30 day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thorpe.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely and son Fayne and Mrs. D. L. Pieriott of Morgan spent Sunday afternoon visiting the Elvin Ely home.

The grade school teachers attended a health workshop in Heppner Friday and the high school teachers attended Thursday.

Among those who have gone deer hunting are Russell Miller, Shorty

Lehman, Cecil Hamilton, Lou Hamilton, Melvin Carlson and Edward McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill and Keith and Mr. and Mrs. Art Allen and Gene spent the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe at Union.

Mrs Ann Overson and daughters of Wallowa spent the week-end visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black.

Melvin Carlson spent Wednesday in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pearson went to Heppner Saturday from where Mr. Pearson went hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hill of Wenatchee Wash. spent Monday visiting Mrs. Elvin Ely and Mrs. Ida Chandler.

Mrs. A. A. Agee returned home Saturday from Hermiston where

Continued on Page Seven

Willard and Goodyear Batteries
For all Cars and Trucks.
BATTERIES RECHARGED
New Fast Willard Safe Method.
RENTALS
Richfield Service
Phone 1242
Heppner, Oregon

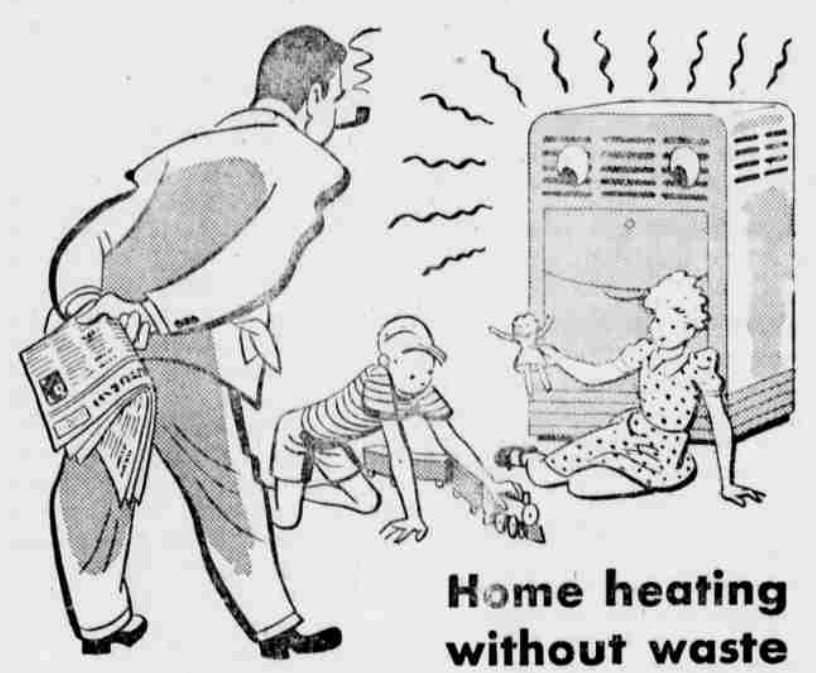

... and EFFECT

This little act of carelessness is responsible for approximately one fourth of our forest fires, No. 1 enemy of the woods.

But the direct money loss isn't the greatest danger. Worse is the fact that lands frequently burned over lose their capacity for reproduction. America needs productive forest lands, not fire-blackened wastes, for America needs the things forests produce.

You can do your part by making certain your cigarette is out before you throw it away.

KINZUA PINE MILLS COMPANY

Home heating without waste

For every family, fuel conservation is a wartime "must." Make the most of all you get! Standard Burner Oils are completely distilled (purified). They provide complete combustion without waste—no carbon deposit or coke residue. Standard Furnace Oil for home furnaces; Standard Stove Oil for circulating heaters.

L. E. DICK
Phone 622

Your local representative for STANDARD OF CALIFORNIA