BID BIDS REJECTED

All bids for purchase of grain bins under control of Morrow County Agricultural association in Morrow county have been rejected by Commodity Credit corporation, and it is expected that the bins will be offered at auction sale, it was announced by Henry Baker, associa-

Here over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green of Portland and Earl Knepper of Lemon, S. D. Mr. Knepper is Mrs. Alex Green's brother-in-law and this was his first visit to Heppner. He and Joe tried their luck hunting for deer and Dame Fortune smiled upon each of them.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nys over the week-end were Mr. Nys's daughter Catherine of Portland and Lt. Margaret Bray, Navy Nurse corps, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. R. B. Rice was hostess Oct. 25 to the home economics club of the Lexington grange. About 12 ladies were present and the afternoon was spent in hemming tea-towels and pillow slips.

Lawrence Becket, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becket of Eightmile, has returned to the States and is at present at Fort Lewis. Lawrence has been in the service since the spring of 1942.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hughes spent Tuesday in Boardman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Healy. Mrs. Healy is Mr. Hughes' sister.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leach spent a few days here with Mrs. Leach's mother, Mrs. Letha Archer. James tried for a Blue mountain buck but had to return to Portland minus a venison supply.

Mrs. Nellie G. Anderson is back on the job at the Case Furniture store after being confined to her home with illness for a few days.

Cpl. Willard Blake called his wife from a California point Wednesday noon about fifteen minutes after he stepped off the plane which brought him from the Pacific area. He will receive his discharge from the Army at the Portland Air base and return to his family in Heppner.

M. L. Case returned home Sunday night from a highly successful hunting trip in the Blue mountains where he bagged himself a deer. His son, Harold and the other members of the party returned to their homes in the Willamette valley on Monday.

A hunting party which has been trekking to the mountains each fall for the past five years came in Saturday with six bucks—a 100 percent rating. The group includes Elmer Griffith, Henry Peterson, Cecil Lutkins, Bill Bosley, Dale Brown and Carl Bergstrom. Only once since the group started hunting together has the record not been complete. One year one member failed to bring down a buck.

Mrs. Emery Coxen is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blake. Mrs. Coxen arrived by bus Tuesday from her home in Chula Vista, California and plans to visit here two weeks.

Misses Laurel Ball, Barbara Ledbetter and Janet Hodge plan to spend the week-end in Portland where they will attend the Oregon-Washington game.

O. P. Ferguson of Gold Beach is in Heppner this week having come to go hunting with his brother, O. E. Ferguson.

Earl and Len Gilliam and Ray Drake left this morning for the John Day country on their annual elk hunt. The men will be gone two weeks.

GIRL SCOUTS OBSERVE HALLOWE'EN, SCOUT WEEK

On Monday evening the members of Troop III and their leaders were hostesses for a Halloween costume party at the parish house in honor of their troop committee and friends.

The guests were conducted thru the chamber of horrors and some 35 girls enjoyed an evening of games and dancing topped off by the traditional refreshments—cider and doughnuts.

Wednesday at their regular meeting the girls of Troop III gave a special program in celebration of Girl Scout week, Oct. 28 to Nov. 3, which is being observed nationally. In Heppner the week was ushered in on Sunday morning with a special morning service at the Methodist church attended by all of the Heppner troops.

LaVerne VanMarter is leaving today for Portland to spend several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Batty were Heppner visitors Wednesday from their home at Monument.
