

Confidence Vote Given Teachers

Heppner teachers were extended a vote of confidence in a meeting of the school board Monday evening attended by a considerable number of patrons and interested spectators. There had been criticism of disciplinary methods employed by some of the teachers and after discussion of the various phases of school life by Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Supt. George Corwin and several teachers, Harold Becket, member of the school board made a motion that the group extend a vote of confidence to the teachers. The motion carried without a dissenting vote.

Mayor J. O. Turner presided at the meeting which resulted in ironing out some misunderstandings and left each one present at peace with his neighbor.

CLINIC SCHEDULED

A sewing machine clinic has been scheduled for Nov. 16 at Lexington. Miss Grace Gadeken, emergency assistant for Morrow county, will conduct the all-day meeting which will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall. Those wishing assistance in cleaning, repairing and adjusting their machines should have them at the hall by 10 o'clock a. m. The meeting will be public and those attending are asked to bring pie or sandwiches for lunch.

INVITED TO SERVICES

Members of the post and unit of the American Legion have been extended an invitation by Rev. Fletcher Forster of the Methodist church to attend services Armistice day.
