

MISSIONARY MEETING SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY

The regular Unified Missionary meeting will be held at 2 p. m. Friday, Nov. 30 at the Methodist church.

Speaker for the day will be Mrs. Moon, a returned missionary from Jamaica. An interesting program has been planned and a good attendance is desired.

Visiting at the Ray Drake home over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Drake and children Nancy and Raymond III of Corvallis, Capt. and Mrs. Donald Drake and son Donald II, of Portland, Claudine Drake of Salem and Claude Drake. Sunday the family met Sgt Douglas Drake at Arlington returning from three years over-seas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Cline of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens of Joseph returned Sunday to their respective homes after spending several days here with Mrs. Cline's and Mr. Steven's sister, Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, and Mrs. Sara McNamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank are leaving soon to return to Mr. Frank's home in Pennsylvania, where he expects to go to school. They will accompany Raymond Turner, son of Mrs. Grace Turner, who has recently been discharged and is going to New Jersey where he has employment.

Mrs. P. A. Mollahan is in Pendleton this week where she is nursing her sister who was operated upon Tuesday, and also caring for Mrs. F. W. Turner.

F. W. Turner returned to Heppner Tuesday from several days in Portland where he was transacting business and visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred Allison and twin granddaughters, Jo and Jan. Mr. Turner is in Pendleton today visiting Mrs. Turner in St. Anthony's hospital.

William McCaleb arrived home Saturday and took his father W. L. McCaleb to Milton to visit. Billy recently was discharged after seeing service in the European theater.

Mr. and Mrs. John Saager spent Thanksgiving in Milton at the home of friends. They report a most enjoyable time.

AUTHORITY ON DEAFNESS HERE

Mr. S. H. Ripp will be in Heppner to conduct the new and radically different "Acousticon Speech Hearing Test" for the hard of hearing at a clinic to be held in the Heppner Hotel on one day only, Tuesday, December 4, from 12:00 to 7:00 p.m. Mr. Ripp has had specialized laboratory training on hard of hearing problems and takes an understanding interest in helping the hard of hearing.

Hard of hearing people are invited to attend this Hearing Aid Clinic where they will be given the Acousticon Speech Hearing Test free of cost and without obligation. Also you may enjoy a demonstration of the War-Born Development "Hearing Lenses," which help ears as properly fitted glasses help and rest eyes.

Acousicon's greatest achievement, the Super Power model, will also be demonstrated. For more power, and better hearing, this brand new model is War Time engineering and Science's post war answer to your hearing needs.

With this marvelous new SUPER POWER instrument, is the incredible, revolutionary "Tom Thumb" B Battery. A battery so small it barely covers the end of your thumb—yet so powerful it will amaze you! Come in! See it! Try it! Hear it! Acousticon—World's First and Oldest Manufacturer of Electrical Hearing Aids.
