

P-TA HEARS DISCUSSION OF BETTER SCHOOLS

The Heppner branch of the P. T. A. met Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers and Supt. George A. Corwin spoke on "Better Schools and Better Education." The display was work done by the pupils in their language art class.

Mrs. Christianson's room was re-therefore it will have the party presented by the most mothers. The hostesses who served refreshments at the close of the meeting were Mrs. Harold Hill, Mrs. Wm. Cunningham and Mrs. Theodore Smith.

DEAN T. GOODMAN PASSES AT SALEM

Brief announcement of the death of Dean T. Goodman at Salem Monday was contained in Thursday's Oregonian. Goodman, former garage operator in Heppner has been cashier in the main office of the secretary of state since 1935 and that office was closed Wednesday afternoon during the funeral hour.

Goodman was associated with John Vaughn in operating the Heppner garage now managed by Charles Vaughn.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the words of sympathy and acts of kindness, for the cars provided and for the many beautiful floral tributes, and to the American Legion and veterans of World War II for their part in the memorial service for our beloved Lewis.
