

BOARDMAN NEWS

By Maxine Ely
Mrs. Leo Potts gave a birthday party for her two daughters, Marie, aged eight and Irene, one year. Attending were: Susan Partlow, Connie and Carolyn Baker, Sharon Fussell, Delores Carlson, Franklin Delano, Ann McLouth and Ora Ely.

Mrs. Bill Lilly and sons Eldon and Dickie of Imbler spent the week-end visiting friends and relatives here. Eldon has quit college at Oregon State as he is entering the service Thursday Dec. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. George Linn entertained the teachers at their home Friday evening with a luncheon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bechdolt, Ronald Black, Guy Yarnell, Mrs. Maxine Scott and Mrs. Black.

A shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Duelen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bob McLean at the grange hall Monday night. These families lost their home by fire. Sandwiches and coffee were served and dancing was enjoyed after the shower.

Leonard Robertson motored to Portland Sunday to visit his sister, Rozella. His mother who has been visiting down there returned with him Sunday.

FLIES FROM FLORIDA

Len Gilman is home on leave for ten days, arriving Monday. He flew from Florida, leaving there Sunday and arriving at Walla Walla Monday afternoon where he was met by Mr. and Mrs. Rod Thomson and brought to Heppner. Bad weather made it impossible to land at Pendleton as scheduled.

Word has been received here that FO Boyd Redding was aboard the General Morton which was due to dock at New York Monday. AMM2c and Mrs. Claude Snow and baby left Wednesday for Newport Wash., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Snow's parents. Claude has but recently returned from Okinawa and will report to Seattle for further orders.

Charles Hodge arrived in Heppner the last of the week with his honorable discharge in hand. Charles was a CPO in the navy and has seen much service the past several years.

Major and Mrs. Edward Burchell returned home from Seattle Monday, where Mrs. Burchell had gone to meet her husband when he landed from his tour of duty overseas. Maj. Burchell contemplates remaining in the army.
