

News of Folks in and Around Town

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker spent Christmas in Ione with Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman. They were in Heppner on Wednesday visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell spent Christmas in Portland, going down on Sunday. Mrs. Howell contracted a flu germ and is now confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clouston and daughters of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Heyden and children of Stanfield, were Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Parker. The women are sisters of Mrs. Parker's. With the exception of a brother who has not returned from overseas, the entire family were all together.

Glenn McMurtry is home on 30 day leave from his Navy duties in the Pacific. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McMurtry, met their son in Pendleton on Christmas Eve.

Eugene Normoyle and Miss Janet Hodge were married in Lewiston, Ida., Sunday, Dec. 23, and upon their return went to their farm home near Ione. The groom is a returned veteran and Mrs. Normoyle daughter of C. L. Hodge, is a nurse, and has been employed in the offices of Dr. L. D. Tibbles and Dr. R. C. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp Green and son arrived in Heppner Sunday to surprise Mr. Green's brother, Alex and family. After spending Christmas here, the visitors departed Wednesday morning to visit relatives and friends in Washington and California. The guests live in Nebraska and drove west for the holiday visit.

M. L. Case was agreeably surprised when his son, Harold, and family arrived from Clatskanie, Ore. to spend Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Case and Janet returned home Tuesday evening.

Kathryn Gail has arrived to grace the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins Jr., as of Dec. 21. The little miss was born at the home of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Parker and both mother and child are doing very well. Gail weighed nine pounds and a nicer baby this reporter has not seen in some time. We aren't prejudiced, either.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marshall and daughter, Julia Lee, are scheduled to arrive in Heppner tomorrow to visit at the home of Mrs. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hughes. Mr. Marshall has just this past week-end been discharged from the army and is once more entering upon the life of a civilian.

Happy New Year!

Here's a toast to you, our loyal friends and customers, wishing good health, good cheer and Happy New Year!
