

Masonic-Eastern Star Installation Social Success

That much-looked-for social event, the annual joint installation ceremony and dinner given by the Masonic groups and the Eastern Star, was put through on schedule Saturday evening in the Masonic hall. Lodge members and their guests spent a pleasant evening starting with a turkey dinner that showed reconversion is well on its way as far as food is concerned and ending with the presentation of gifts after installation ceremonies were concluded.

Approximately 200 people were fed in the early part of the evening. The tables were beautifully decorated with viands, with turkey as the piece de resistance and plenty of all the other good things which go to make up a feast. The food committee was ably assisted with the serving by a group of high school young people and there The Royal Arch chapter was first were no long delays.

JOYOUS CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Christmas had a more definite meaning to Mrs. W. E. Davis than she had anticipated. Her husband Pfc Davis of the Marine corps, called her by long distance telephone from San Diego, where he had just landed Sunday after an absence from the mainland of 18 months. The best part of his message was that he hoped to be home in a week. There was a period during the fall when Mrs. Davis did not hear from her husband for many weeks and she hoped he was on his way home. Then a letter came advising her that he had been stationed out in the "jungle and couldn't get a letter off to her. "Bill" was in Saipan for a year and after participating in the Okinawa campaign went with his outfit to Japan.

Joe McLaughlin is around old familiar haunts, saying hello to his old friends who are glad to see him. arrived Wednesday from Philadelphia on a three-weeks leave.

HE'S CLEAN...
for he has no smoke or soot to dirty up pans, walls or curtains.

HE'S A GOOD COOK...
his scientific heat helps meat and vegetables retain their natural texture and color. His penetrating even heat bakes and roasts clear through, preventing cake failures, reducing shrinkage so roasts go farther. His low water cooking saves vitamins and minerals.

HE'S RELIABLE...
he always supplies exactly the heat you want. He'll even turn the heat low or off at the right time while you're away.

HE'S CHEAP...
if yours is a typical home he'll do all your cooking for less than $2 a month. That's because PP&L keeps cutting his wages (5 times in 10 years)!

● You, too, can enjoy better meals and extra hours of leisure when you let Reddy Kilowatt do your cooking.

SEE HOW LITTLE IT COSTS YOU TO COOK ELECTRICALLY!

If you now use 60 kwh a month then to add electric cooking will cost about $2.00 a month more.
If you now use 70 kwh a month then to add electric cooking will cost about $1.90 a month more.
If you now use 100 kwh a month then to add electric cooking will cost about $1.70 a month more.
If you now use 125 kwh a month then to add electric cooking will cost about $1.50 a month more.

Exact cost varies with the amount of cooking and baking you do. However, studies show that a typical home here uses about 100 kwh a month for electric cooking. Above figures are based on use of this amount.
