Carl Bergstrom was elected trustee; Oscar Peterson, delegate to the conference; Henry Peterson, delegate to the district; Oscar Peterson, Sunday school superintendent; Henry Baker, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Henry Peterson, organist; Mildred Carlson, assistant organist, and Herbert Ekstrom, secretary.

The congregation voted to have church services the last Sunday of each month. Rev. Hakeson promised to send a minister once a month, weather permitting. A good turnout is expected for the next meeting, Jan. 27.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom was baptized Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom acting as Godparents.

Frank Mason was a business caller in Heppner Sunday, coming from his home near Condon. He stated that when the cold snap broke up it rained for four days in that area causing streams to swell and obstructing traffic over the John Day highway south of Condon.

Among recent arrivals in Heppner to make their home are Mr. and Mrs. Kennett Keeling, who lately moved here from Naches, Wash. and are occupying the former Don Strait house on south Court street. Mr. Keeling is acting as assistant to Ranger Glen Jorgenson in timber management.
