

County Chairman Calls Attention to AAA Farm Plans

It's AAA farm plan time again, and within the next few weeks community committeemen will help Morrow county farmers and ranchers work out plans for meeting each farm's most urgent conservation needs with the assistance of the 1946 agricultural conservation program.

Henry Baker, chairman of the county AAA committee said that Morrow county has a 1946 conservation budget of approximately $65,000 and a handbook of some 22 approved practices for assisting operators to head off soil erosion and depletion and to repair damage already done to the county's agricultural resources.

Farm plans will be the basis for participation in the program and every operator who intends to take part in the program must sign a farm plan before he starts his spring operations or before May 1.

Baker pointed out that the farm plan serves as the "contract" for the government-farmer partnership through which the conservation program operates. Both parties share in cost of carrying out a practice, he explained, and since funds are limited, the operator must have approval of his practices before he starts work. He applies for fications and rates of payment for and obtains this approval on the farm plan, and also receives specific approved practices. The farm plan sign-up also gives committeemen an opportunity to acquaint each producer with the production needs for 1946, and to help him plan his farm operations in line with production goals. Committee-about price support and loan programs also will have information grams, crop insurance, and other programs available through the county AA office.

W. V. Parker was in Heppner the past week-end gathering up household effects and some of his law library to move to Hood River where he has established his law practice and has found living quarters for his family. As soon as the weather will permit, Mrs. Parker and the two children will come from Texas where they have been living for some time awaiting the time when Mr. Parker would finish his stint with Uncle Sam.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Tanner and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Randolph and family left Tuesday morning for New Mexico to make their home. Mr. Tanner had been employed at Hodge Chevrolet company and Mr. Randolph had been in the employ of Case Furniture company.

IONE NEWS NOTES

Those attending the Hermiston-Baker game Saturday night from here were Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley and Clarence Linn. They reported a very thrilling game.

The Morrow county division of the OSTA met at the school house Wednesday evening, Jan. 30. Ione PTA served dinner at 6 p. m. There were about 50 teachers present. After dinner a film furnished by the state department was put on by the Heppner group. Music was furnished by Irrigon students and two vocal solos by LeRoy Darling, superintendent of Irrigon schools. Discussions were held on the speech and musical festivals, spelling contests and typing contests, which will be held later.

The junior class held a food sale Saturday at Bristow's store and took in about $23.

B. C. Forsythe, superintendent, states that the projector for the moving picture machine has arrived but the "mike" has not come. It is hoped that the school will soon be able to show films.

Mrs. Ida Coleman and son Wallace returned from Fergus Falls, Minn. Sunday. Mrs. Coleman visited her father who is quite all. She also had a visit with her daughter Jean who is in the Waves. Jean came to Minnesota from Washington D. C. to visit her mother.

The HEC of Willows grange will have a pot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Berl Akers Feb. 15

Out of town relatives here for the Rietmann funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson of The Dalles, Mrs. Joe Stith, Meridian Ida, Robert Rietmann Fullerton, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Balsiger, White Salmon, Wash, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Balsiger, The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. James Hendryx and Wm. Balsiger of White Salmon. Robert Rietmann and Larry Ritche returned to Fullerton, Calif.

1. We are reserving a percentage of our cars for buyers who have served in the Armed Forces. We believe everybody will agree this is right and fair.
2. While we have no used cars, and would welcome a trade-in on a new car, we will not insist on a trade-in as a requisite to a new car. We will, however, make fair allowance for used cars traded to us.

Our company, which is 100% Heppner owned, will continue to be fair and square with our customers and it is our aim to fill their new car orders in the order they are placed with us.

GAS AND AIR

FIDELIS UNREIN, Editor

Howdy Folks: With educators planning to use radio extensively in the classrooms it may not be long until scholars are taught in dialects.

And when Willie fails to get his lessons it will take a technician to determine whether he needs a scolding or a new tube.

While on the subject of radio, we might observe that radio could be improved if some of the entertainers were given the air.

Twenty million homes are still without radios, according to a newspaper item.

We mentioned this to one of our customers and he said he wished to heck the house next door to him was one of them.
