

News Around the Town

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniel and Mrs. Daniel's son, Harold Armstrong, are leaving Friday morning for Florida to spend the next two or three months. Mrs. Daniel is recuperating from a serious eye operation and it is felt expedient to take her completely away from home so she will rest. They are driving south.

Mrs. John Saager received word the first of the week of the serious illness of her cousin, Mrs. Floyd Sliger who is in a hospital in Albany where she gave birth to a baby girl Monday. The baby did not live and was buried Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Sliger visited in Heppner several months ago and made many friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tullis and son John of Pendleton, former Rhea creek residents were visiting and shopping in Heppner Wednesday. John has just received his discharge from the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz and son Len Ray went to The Dalles Monday to take Mr. Schwarz' brother, Bill. While there Bill received orders from Washington, D. C. to report to Ft. Lewis, so they drove on to Fort Lewis where Billy was granted his discharge and is once more a free man.

Mrs. Orwick is back on the job at Central Market this week after a tussle with the flu last week. Mrs. Myrtle Huddleston of Portland came up to care for her daughter and see that the family was fed.

Miss Marylou Ferguson is spending this week at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson. Marylou is a student at Whitman college and while college life is pretty wonderful, it is also pretty wonderful to come home for a few days. Seems like there are several things that need her undivided attention.

Bill LeTrace of Tacoma, Wash., spent the past week-end in Heppner visiting friends.

Howdy, Folks: There's a vast difference between a horse race and a political race. In the horse race the whole horse runs.

YOU CAN'T FOOL ALL OF THE PEOPLE ALL OF THE TIME, BUT A POLITICIAN IS CONTENTED WITH A SIZEABLE MAJORITY.

DAFFY-NATION

POLITICIAN—One who loves his country and wants to make as much out of it as possible.

That little boy who was sent to the store and forgot what he was sent for grew up to be a congressman.

You know we're only kidding. As a matter of fact the writer came from a long line of politicians. His grandfather ran for the bbrder once

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Ollie Mapes and The Streamlined House

The other day a construction firm set up an exhibit in the courthouse square. They built a new "house of the future"—and invited folks to see it.

Drew quite a crowd—with the women sighing over the shiny kitchen, and the men admiring the heating units and insulation.

All except Ollie Mapes. He looks around a spell and goes home. When I get there, he's sitting before his old dutch fireplace, with his feet on the screen, and a mellow glass of beer in hand.

"You know," quotes Ollie, "it takes a heap of living to make a home."

Looking around, I see what Ollie means. A room crowded with memories of a life well spent—and the friendly habits of a happy home, from a blazing old-fashioned fire, to a mellow glass of beer with friends. From where I sit, those things do more to make a home than modern streamlined gadgets.

SPRING WHEAT INSURANCE

Crop insurance agents and AAA offices in Oregon spring wheat counties now are accepting applications for 1946 crop insurance. E. H. Miller, chairman of the state AAA committee, has announced.

Urging growers to sign their applications as soon as possible, Miller points out that spring wheat insurance must be applied for before the crop is seeded, and not later than March 16.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to neighbors and friends who tendered us many kindnesses and comforting words in our recent bereavement, and for the beautiful floral offerings.
