

Accidents . . .

 shoulder and a serious injury to one knee. The motorcycle belonged to a third party and was considerably damaged.

The most spectacular accident happened when Joe Meek, P. P. & L. company lineman turned over the company light truck near the Frank Wilkinson place while making a fast run to the city well at the forks of Willow creek. Meek had received a telephone call about 9 o'clock Sunday morning stating that his son Glyde (Shorty) had fallen over a cliff and cut his foot. Not knowing how badly the boy was injured, Meek started for the scene and was going at a pretty good clip when he suddenly came upon some 30 sheep in the road. Realizing the scarcity of mutton, he did not wish to further diminish the supply and endeavored to swing out around the flock. The truck rolled completely over and landed right side up without a great deal of damage. Tools were thrown out and the ladder on the side of the truck was broken. Then the motor caught on fire. He grabbed the fire extinguisher and put out the fire, gathered up part of the tools and set out for the well, with a lapse of not to exceed five minutes. He was greatly relieved to find that the boy's foot had not been cut, although a bad ankle sprain and a broken bone in the foot had been sustained. "Shorty", his brother and Keith and Gerry Connor had gone to the well Saturday night and camped out. Sunday morning they climbed up the mountain to see deer and the ledge upon which they were standing gave way and precipitated "Shorty" over the 15-foot cliff.

Meek returned to the scene of his accident and picked up the rest of the tools and returned to town. Except for a few dents and scratches on the cab of the truck there was little to show there had been an accident.

GAS AND AIR

FIDELIS UNREIN, Editor

Howdy Folks: The moon may not influence the tide, but it certainly has an effect on the untied.

One man blamed the moon for his marriage. He said if it hadn't of been for the moon her old man would never have caught him.

OF COURSE, MARRIAGE IS THE SPICE OF LIFE.

We heard about one man who went into matrimony with his eyes closed . . . her father packed an awful wallop.

SOMETIMES A MAN TAKES A WIFE FOR A MATE AND SHE TURNS OUT TO BE A SKIPPER.

Well, marriage is a fine institution. We wouldn't be without it.

JUST AS YOU'LL NEVER BE WITHOUT OUR SERVICE ONCE YOU'VE TRIED IT.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Ben Ryder and the Wanderlust

During the war, Ben Ryder talked about the trips he'd take when gasoline rationing was ended. Used to pore over roadmaps—checking mileages and charting routes.

Now Ben's taking quite a lot of ribbing. Soon as rationing was lifted, he decided he liked staying home, pattering in the garden, playing chess, sharing a pleasant glass of beer with friends.

"Shucks," admits Ben sheepishly, "as soon as you can go, then it's just as good as having gone!

You might as well stay home... enjoy your friends and family."

From where I sit, that's a pretty common trait in human nature.

Take that glass of beer, for instance. During Prohibition, Ben was nursing an insatiable thirst. But come repeal, Ben suddenly finds he's happy with a friendly, moderate glass of beer—and nothing more. Yep—just tell folks the sky's the limit, and they'll settle for a piece of friendly earth.
