

Irrigon News Notes

By MRS. J. A. SHOUN

Mrs. Vernon Jones is home from the Pendleton hospital.

The Dexters have their house stuccoed.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Falkgreen of Pendleton visited the B. P. Rands Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Haddox, Mrs. H. W. Grim, Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. Virgil Sparks went to La Grande Saturday.

to the Pendleton hospital Tuesday Mrs. E. L. Rucker was taken back Mr. Rucker and daughter Iva Joan went up to see her Thursday.

David Rand was brought home from the Walla Walla hospital Friday. He has recovered nicely from an appendectomy.

The Assembly of God church is meeting at the Marshall Markham home until the church is ready.

Mrs. Minnie Fraser and Clara were Pendleton visitors Thursday. Mrs. Lillian Rutledge, Mrs. Fraser and Maxine went Saturday.

Katherine Guerin of Spokane and Pat Guerin of Umatilla visited their mother, Mrs. William Graybeal and family. Jimmie Guerin went to Pendleton Monday to take his physical examination for the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shoun of Walla Walla arrived Saturday to visit the J. A. Shouns. They left Sunday leaving little Judy for a longer visit with her grandparents.

J. E. McCoy went to Portland Sunday morning to be with his wife who is in a Portland hospital. Her sister, Mrs. Marshall Markham went down Monday morning.

Mrs. Denny of Castle Rock is visiting the Sam Umikers. Mr. Umiker is also home for a few days.

The Columbia Electric Company The homes of the Stephens, Grandma Ferrill and Chester Wilsons are now wired for electricity. The citizens in the east end of town now have water since the Davis and Shoun pump is installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Adren and two children of Redmond spent from Saturday until Monday with their parents, the H. W. Grims and C. W. Acocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and two daughters, Eunice and Shirley have moved to the F. C. Aldrich place. They have been living on the O'Brien place.

Sgt. Glen O'Brien is to move on to it soon. He was discharged from the army Friday. Mrs. O'Brien and son are with him. They are to spend a few days at Menlo, Wash. Then home to the farm.

The Dan Hieberts of Cottage Grove are moving up this week. They brought one oad of furniture Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Hiebert have two small daughters. He has his father and two brothers who moved here recently.

Ora Thompson, son Ronald and father Carl Thompson and Avery Shoun were Heppner visitors Wednesday.

The Irrigon band had a pre-concert concert with all of the teachers and the janitor helping with the preparations. It was well received by a good crowd of the patrons.

The Fire Equipment committee served ice cream and cake after the concert to add to their fund.

Supt. Darling took his band to La Grande Saturday where they won first in their division.

The Jack Brownings, Harvey Warners, the Fred Adams' families and Mrs. Turner went to La Grande for the band concert. They all returned late Saturday night tired but happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith have moved into the Rucker house. He is working at Paterson ferry.

Lexington Items

By MRS. MARY EDWARDS

Some little excitement was created in Lexington Monday when the hangar at the airport caught fire and was totally destroyed. The new Aeronca plane that was used as a trainer plane was also burned. They had just recently been insured. While the hangar fire was in progress a trash fire in the alley back of the Carmichael residence in some way set fire to their garage and partially burned an old truck parked close by. In fighting this fire Ed Grant suffered a badly sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske were business visitors in Pendleton Wednesday.

The following teachers have been given contracts for the coming school year: William Ludwig, superintendent, Mrs. Beth Cherry, high school, Mrs. Ethel Ludwig, eighth grade, Mrs. Delsie Chapel, fifth and sixth grades, Mrs. Verl Frederickson, third and fourth and Mrs. Elmer Hunt, first and second grades.

Miss Doris Scott of Portland is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

at the A. M. Edwards home last C. H. Garfield spent several days week.

E. S. Burnside is at Ritter where he is seeking relief for an infected leg.

Mrs. June Schoonover and infant son, Roger Alan, have returned home from the Corda Saling maternity home.

Leonard Munkers left Wednesday for Bremerton where he will soon receive his discharge from the navy.

Vernon Munkers has returned home from the hospital in Pendleton where he was taken two weeks ago for an emergency appendectomy.

E. J. Evans was taken to Portland by his son-in-law, Steven Thompson last Sunday. He was quite sick and it was thought he might have to undergo an operation.

LIVE ON LONG ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Shroeder are now residents of Long Island, N. Y. where they have found quarters at 3428 90th St., Jackson Heights. Mr. Shroeder has a position with American Airways and they have been searching for a permanent home since his release from the army four months ago. This information was contained in a letter received from Mrs. Shroeder last week by her mother, Mrs. Frank Rumble of Heppner.

Floyd Tolleson, Union Pacific agent at Heppner, received word Monday of the death of his brother, George Tolleson, at Jacksonville, Ala. Deceased was an older brother of the local man and had been ill for many months.

Hamsto Bake While They Last

Baked Ham adds that special something so desired with your Easter dinner

*Order
Today*

In Our Grocery Department:

you will find Fresh Vegetables—all that are obtainable.

A complete line of Staple and Fancy Groceries . . . Milk and Cream.

Locker Service Is Our Specialty

Shop and Save the Burkenbine Way

Heppner Market & Lockers

Transferring & Heavy Hauling

Padded Moving Vans

Storage

Warehouse

U. P. and N. P.

Penland Bros.

Transfer Co.

39 SW Dorion Avenue

Phone 338

Pendleton, Ore.

Coleman Automatic Oil Water Heater

America's leading manufacturer of home appliances that use petroleum products as fuel.

Hot Water Without Work!

whether you live in city, town or country.

Yet it costs so little to enjoy this new luxury of Pleasant-Living.

Three models supply all hot water needs

Sample on Display---Place Your Order Now

Case Furniture Co.

A Jeep On Display

Now accepting orders
for early delivery

CHUCK'S
Sales and Service