

TIES

A wide assortment of nationally advertised brands

$1 and $1.50

Join the Easter Parade in one of our new Spring Hats

You will be at the head of the procession in a Hardeman Hat at $6.50 to $7.50

or a Stetson at $7.50 to $12.50

Wilson's Men's Store

Better Homes for Better Living to Be Homemakers' Day Theme at Lexington

How to plan a house for easy family living but hard family wear will be discussed at Homemakers' day, announces Miss Grace Gadeken, emergency assistant. This meeting will be held at the Lexington grange hall beginning promptly at 10:15 a. m., Wednesday, April 24.

Miss Lois Lutz, extension specialist in home management of Oregon State college, will speak on the tension, will discuss, "New Fabrics for You and Your House," during the morning session.

All interested homemakers and their husbands are invited to attend this meeting arranged by Miss Gadeken. Exhibits and a luncheon program, in addition to the morning and afternoon sessions, have been arranged.

Lunch will be served at noon.

MISS FRANCES CLINTON
Asst. State Home Demonstration Leader, Oregon State College

LOIS LUTZ
Extension Home Management Specialist, Oregon State College.

subject, "Better Homes for Better Living." Her talk will point up the importance of careful planning to insure a home that meets family needs.

She suggests starting with a plan that is basically good and adapting it as seems necessary to fit the individual family situation. Because many farm families plan to do a large part of the work themselves, this makes careful planning even more important.

Miss Frances Clinton, assistant state leader of home economics ex-

HAMMS-BRANNON

Word has reached friends in Heppner of the marriage in The Dalles Wednesday of Mrs. Rose Cunningham Wright and Darold Hamms. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jim Brannon, sister of the bride. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hamms and Mrs. Brannon went on into Portland for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney drove to Portland Monday evening to spend several days.

FOR YOUR CAR

You can avoid radiator trouble later by having your cooling system flushed and cleaned now.

Yes, we have cans for your anti-freeze and will be glad to save it for you.

Hodge Chevrolet Co.