

VISITED SISTER

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thompson and son Gary were here last week from San Francisco visiting Mr.

Thompson's sister, Miss Esther Thompson. Mr. Thompson has just returned from service in Germany, France and England with the U. S.

army. The visitors will make their home in San Diego.

CARD OF THANKS

It is not possible for me to meet all who were so thoughtful in my recent bereavement and I take this means of thanking each and every one for their expressions of sympathy, either in person or by beautiful floral tributes to the memory of my brother Charles.
Walter Luckman.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people of Lexington for coming to our aid Monday and saving our garage from destruction when a trash fire threatened. Your timely assistance probably averted a more disastrous fire and we are truly grateful.
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael

F. W. Turner spent the fore part of the week at Ritter enjoying the baths and resting.

CHARLES LUCKMAN LAID TO REST HERE SUNDAY

Services for Charles Luckman, whose death occurred Thursday morning, April 11, were held at 2 o'clock p. m. Sunday from All Saints Episcopal church. Archdeacon Neville Blunt officiating and arrangements in charge of the Phelps Funeral Home. Interment was made in the Heppner Masonic cemetery. In addition to relatives mentioned in the obituary last week, several cousins of the deceased were here from Hermiston to attend the funeral. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodward, Robert Woodward, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kileun. From Pine City were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Struthers who were formerly employed by the Luckman brothers.

BURKENBINE-SUNDQUIST

Merle Burkenbine and Lavina Sundquist were married in Lewiston, Idaho, Tuesday afternoon at 4:45 p. m. The young couple were accompanied by Miss Kathryn Burns of Heppner. They went to Kamiah, Idaho, where Merle has a great aunt, Mrs. Lewis Drake, who accompanied them to Lewiston for the ceremony. Mrs. Drake was also present at the wedding of the young groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burkenbine.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sundquist of Heppner. The young people will return here to make their home where Merle is associated with his mother and brother in the Heppner Market.

Children of the primary department of the Church of Christ are requested by their teachers to be present at the church at 1:30 p. m. Saturday to practice for the Easter program.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marshall arrived in Heppner Monday from McMinnville to spend the summer here. Keith has been employed with the county road crew and will drive truck until school opens in the fall.

Judge Bert Johnson and Commissioners Barratt and Neill attended a county officer's meeting in Arlington Friday.
