

HAIL IS HAIL IN STATE OF WYOMING PICTURE SHOWS THAT

Some fair to middling hailstones have fallen in this vicinity in times past but nothing, it is believed, to compare with some that Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman saw in Cheyenne, Wyoming, when he was in that territory on shore police duty.

Bauman was exhibiting a picture in the Cheyenne Tribune with a young lady holding a hailstone in one hand and a 50-cent piece in the other. The hailstone was more than twice the diameter of the coin. The local man was in Cheyenne at the time of the storm and kept the clipping from the newspaper to verify any statement he might make relative to the size of the frozen pellets.

GI TRAINING BLANKS

Mrs. Grace Turner states that application blanks for veteran training service are available at her office. This appertains to the GI educational service and Mrs. Turner will gladly assist veterans in filling out the applications.

M. L. Case and his daughter-in-law, Ms. Allen Case are expected to arrive in Heppner today from Portland. Mr. Case has been in the city several weeks under medical care and is greatly improved. Mrs. Case is joining her husband here to make her home.

CHOSEN RODEO PRINCESS

Betty Smethurst has been chosen as Rodeo princess representing the Lexington grange. The choice was made at a recent meeting of the grange, following similar selections by the Willows and Rhea Creek granges. Gwen Coleman of Ione is the Willows grange princess and Betty Lovgren was chosen to represent the Rhea Creek grange. Although the Lena grange is no longer active, a princess to represent that part of the county will be chosen soon.

Frank W. Turner made a hurried business trip to Portland this week, leaving Wednesday afternoon and returning Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Ferguson were called to Portland Friday by the serious illness of Mrs. Ferguson's father, Mr. Heiny.

Fred Lucas is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Mr. Lucas has been suffering from a very bad cold and it was felt a rest in the hospital would benefit him.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Archie Ball Jr. is well on the road to recovery after a very serious illness. The little lad and his mother have been at the William Bakla home for several days.

FIDELIS UNREIN, Editor

Howdy Folks: It's great to wake up these spring mornings and hear the leaves whispering outside your window.

We never could stand to hear the grass moan, though.

Spring, that's the time of year a young man's thoughts turn to something fancy.

IT'S ALSO THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN THE GIRLS BEGIN TO THINK ABOUT SHORTER SKIRTS.

Short skirts are a great advantage to the girls, though. They help them to get up stares.

Speaking of girls' clothes, we read that high heels were invented by a girl who was kissed on the forehead.

Be that as it may, we are sure that we can make you a satisfied customer with our
