

Best Program of Year Marks Close Of P-TA Season

The Heppner P-TA ended the 1945-46 season Wednesday evening with its best program of the year.

Guest speaker was Henry Tetz, principal of Pendleton high school, and a former member of the Heppner school faculty. In a speech sparkling with witty observations Mr. Tetz urged that school children be taught true love for their country and their flag. Five main principles children should be taught he likened to the five fingers of the hand, the middle finger representing love for the right. The thumb, as the most important single digit, he likened to the love of God.

The group was entertained with five selections on the marimba by Miss Larson, a talented musician from the Pendleton school.

The Home Ec sewing class, taught by Mrs. Hazel Carlson, staged a style show which demonstrated not only the taste and ability of the girls and their teacher but also that Heppner need not worry about its reputation for beautiful girls.

A popular feature of the program was a report on civic health projects carried out by the upper grades. This was to show in some degree what had been done in the project sponsored in the Heppner schools by the Kellogg Health Foundation. Among health education circles Heppner has received much favorable publicity through the efforts of Supt. Corwin and his staff, assisted by a planning committee of local citizens. Three girls, Patricia Lawrence, Juanita Matteson and Darlene Wise, and a boy, Jimmy Miller, told of what their classes had done and what they saw in their traveling about the town, including bad sanitary conditions and general untidiness.

The new officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. George Corwin, installing officer. They are Mrs. Tress McClintock, president; Mrs. Orville Smith, vice president; Mrs. Jack Couture, secretary, and Mrs. Harold Becket, treasurer.

Mrs. Christianson's first grade won the half-day holiday for greatest attendance of parents at P-TA.

After the program, refreshments were served in the school lunch room by the refreshment committee, including Mrs. Kenneth Blake, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Jack O'Connor and Mrs. George Corwin.

ACQUIRES TWO PLANES

Jack Forsythe, manager of Lexington airport, left Wednesday evening for Middleton, Ohio, to take delivery of a new Aeronca Champion plane which he will ferry to Lexington. Forsythe also has acquired a Luscombe "Silvair" at Baker which he will bring to the airport when he returns from the east.
