CLEANING, CLOTHING CARE
DEMONSTRATION SCHEDULED

Mrs. Fletcher Forster will be hostess at her home Friday May 17, to women of the county at a dry cleaning and care of clothing demonstration under direction of Miss Grace Gadeken, emergency home demonstration agent. The meeting will open at 10:30 a. m. and continue to 3:30 p. m.

A potluck dinner will be served at noon and each person attending is asked to bring a main dish, salad and dessert, a sandwich, plate and silverware. Anyone interested in the work will be welcome to attend.

CHURCH PEOPLE INVITED TO MOUMENT SUNDAY

The congregation of the Methodist church has been invited to Monument for morning service Sunday and there will be neither Sunday school nor morning service here, announces the pastor, Rev. Fletcher Forster. A potluck dinner provided by the Monument folks will be served at the close of the service.

The autocade will leave the local Methodist church by 8:30 a. m. and the pastor is urging members and friends of the church to take their cars, fill them with families and friends and join the trek over the mountains.
