

Services for Mrs. Bergstrom Held Here Saturday Afternoon

Services for Mrs. Caroline Olson Bergstrom, whose death occurred Thursday morning, May 16, were held Saturday afternoon from the Heppner Church of Christ with the Rev. Philip Elman officiating. Interment was in the Heppner Masonic cemetery. A wealth of floral offerings attested to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Bergstrom, who was Caroline Olson before her marriage, came to Morrow county in 1887. She was born in Sweden August 22, 1866. She worked for the late Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth for a time and on June 13, 1888 was married to Olaf Bergstrom, who preceded her in death. She was a member of the Lutheran church and held an honorary life membership in the Valby Missionary society.

A great lover of flowers, Mrs. Bergstrom worked in her garden up to her last illness.

Survivors include Mrs. Hilma Anderson, John Bergstrom, Heppner, Mrs. Emma Long, Portland; Mrs. B. O. Anderson, Heppner; Mrs. Ellen Allyn, Portland; Alfred Bergstrom, Heppner, Edwin Bergstrom, Ione; Carl V. Bergstrom, Esther Bergstrom and Florence Bergstrom, Heppner; nine grandchildren and two nieces in this country and one brother in Sweden.

POTATO SEED GROWERS INVITED TO FIELD DAY

Potato seed growers, seed dealers and all interested parties of Morrow county are invited to attend the potato test plot field day to be held in Corvallis, Wednesday, June 12, reports USDA extension service. All new growers who are planning on making application for potatoes this year would find it very worthwhile to attend this field day and acquaint themselves with the various potato diseases which are of major importance and are necessary to rogue from certain fields.

The extension service is asking that those attending assemble between 8:30 and 9 a. m. on the morning of June 12 at the north entrance of the Agricultural building on the Oregon State college campus. The group will leave the campus at 9 o'clock for the test plot which is located on the Children's Farm Home three miles north of Corvallis on the Albany-Corvallis highway. Transportation facilities will be available for those wanting a ride.

Retiring From Grain Business. . . .
To My Friends in Morrow County:

I wish to announce that I have disposed of my warehouse and elevator business at Ione to the Archer Daniels Midland Company of Minneapolis and am retiring this week.

Before severing connections with the business it is my desire to express my appreciation for the pleasant relations I have enjoyed with the grain growers of this section during the past 13 years and to wish for you continued prosperity and happiness.

I am sure you will find the new management congenial and accomodating and bespeak for them a good patronage.

Sincerely yours,
