Mrs. Reser's fund at $25 a month and money given for parties in our wards and closed wards; money donated by Elks, Lexington Tents, Ec. club and Willows Home Ec. club spent as follows: Ice cream, cakes, berries and cream, $162.50; table and linoleum top our ward, $48.26 radio and recorder repairs, $28.50; electric fan and wardrobe, $14.51; birthday gifts, $5.00; pipes for closed tackle, $2.00; pictures and Father's Day cards, $10.78; plants, $12.00; pictures and Father's Day cards, $10.78; plants, $12.00. This left a balance of $80 which purchased that number of $1.60. This left a balance of $80 which purchased that number of $1.60. We hope our readers will realize we had three wards of paralyzed patients for several months before McCaw Hospital was closed. Your money helped many of them over the first shock when they learned they would never walk, would always be in wheel chairs and over the United States in various hospitals. They all write the same story, no one has done so much for them as Morrow county people do.
