

Ione Women Given Pointers On Good Taste in Clothes

By Mrs. Echo Palmateer
Those coming from a distance to the Fred Lindsey funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Mrs. Roy Stender, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brock, all of Salem.

A home demonstration meeting was held at the Congregational church parlor Monday afternoon. "Developing Good Taste in Clothes" was the subject. Katherine Monahan explained good taste in selecting a wardrobe. Lunch of cookies and coffee was served. Mrs. E. M. Baker and Mrs. Cleo Drake conducted group singing. The next meeting will be December 17 in the afternoon. The subject will be

"Party Planning." Mrs. E. M. Baker and Mrs. Cleo Drake were selected as leaders, and Mrs. Noel Dohy and Mrs. Ernest Heliker as alternates to attend a meeting in Heppner to receive instructions on party planning and then will conduct the December meeting in Ione.

Funeral services were held Wednesday of last week for Fred Lindsey at the I. O. O. F. cemetery with Rev. R. L. Casselman officiating. Mr. Lindsey died at his home in Salem October 24. He was born at Gerard, Kansas, October 7, 1878, and came to Oregon when a boy. He lived in this community a few years before going to Salem. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Crabtree and Mrs. Hattie Brock of Salem, and one brother, Frank Lindsey of Morgan, five nieces and nephews, among whom are Mrs.

Lewis Halvorsen of Ione and Mrs. Archie Munkers of Lexington. The pallbearers were Carl Troedson, A. C. Swanson, M. Fitzpatrick, Omar Rietmann, Walter Rietmann and Fred Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely of Morgan attended the Age 50th wedding anniversary at Boardman Saturday night.

A "Youth for Christ" meeting was held at the Congregational church parlor Friday evening of last week with a potluck supper. Rev. Winquist of Irrigon was the speaker.

Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Holt and daughter Marjorie of Pilot Rock will conduct services at the Assembly of God church Sunday.

C. G. Welmore of Salem is visiting his granddaughter, Mrs. Donald Heliker.

Among those going to Walla Walla last week were Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell, Ed Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely, Mrs. Echo Palmateer, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ely, Elmer Shiffer, Mrs. Etta Bristow, Melvin Brady. The high school girls going were Francine Ely, Laurel Palmateer, Rose Mary Doherty, Virginia Smith, Lorraine Sherman, Betty Ball and Patricia Drake.

Mrs. Bertha Severin, the eighth grade teacher, gave a party for her room Halloween evening.

Omar Rietmann and Oscar Peterson went to Corvallis Friday to attend Dad's day at O. S. C. Saturday and to attend the football game between O. S. C. and Stanford.

Ione football team won at Umatilla Wednesday of last week at Umatilla.

The boys of the high school spent the week end at Walla Walla where they played Prescott Friday but lost the game. They attended a banquet at the Marcus Whitman hotel Saturday and attended the Whitman-Linfield game in the afternoon Saturday.

Guests at the Ernest Heliker home the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Carrell Hearst and family of Bonners Ferry, Idaho. Mrs. Hearst lived here when a girl and will be remembered as Lois Devine. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Devine of Longview, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Grass Valley are the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney.

Recent guests at the Harry Yarnell home were Mrs. Gladys Crider and daughter Beth of Bickleton, Wash. Mrs. Crider is a sister of Mrs. Yarnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea and family went to The Dalles Monday.

Willows grange initiated five candidates in the first and second degrees Sunday afternoon. After the initiation a luncheon of creamed chicken and biscuits and coffee was served by Mrs. James Lindsay and Mrs. Berl Akers.

A pinocle party was held at the grange hall Saturday night with Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn as hostesses. There were 27 present. Those winning scores were, high for women, Mrs. Donald Heliker; low, Mrs. Earl McKinney; high for men, Earl McKinney, and low, Donald Heliker. Refreshments of chicken sandwiches, salad, angel food cake, coffee and cider were served.

Recent guests at the Garland Swanson home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonney of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hedlund and Mike Miller of Salem. Mrs. Bonney is a niece and Mrs. Hedlund and Mr. Miller, sister and brother of Mrs. Swanson.

Miss Eva Swanson was a Salem visitor last week. She returned Friday, bringing her mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson, and Miss Beverly McMillan home with her. Miss McMillan is a granddaughter of Mrs. Swanson.

O. E. Palmateer, specialist in institutional publicity with the Standard Oil company at Salem showed moving pictures at the schoolhouse Tuesday. Mr. Palmateer is a cousin of Mrs. H. O. Ely. He is a former state commander of the American

Irrigon Woman's Car Damaged in Highway Collision

Miss Luella Minnick badly damaged her car Wednesday above Irrigon. She was shaken up and bruised about the chest. She was driving behind another car that stopped suddenly. In trying to stop she put on the brakes, causing the car to turn around in the road. A car coming from the other direction ran into her car, damaging both cars but not injuring the passengers in the other car.

Miss Katherine Monahan, home demonstration agent from Heppner, met with the Irrigon women at the Paul Haberlein home Wednesday, talking taste in clothes. Mrs. Haberlein served cake and coffee for refreshments.

C. N. Lois Markham and C. N. Betty Acock are at Palo Alto in a veteran's hospital. It is a very large hospital, caring for the boys who are still suffering from shock. Three girls were chosen from the Spokane class of nurses.

Mrs. Lavern Westcott was called to New York Tuesday to be ready to sail to Frankfurt, Germany, to live there. Her husband is Staff Sgt. Ralph Westcott and has been there only a few months.

Mrs. Birdie Connell and two sons and her mother, Mrs. Anna Jaynes, and a sister from Portland were Irrigon visitors Thursday.

Mitt Connell of Los Angeles arrived home Monday. His home was here, but he has been gone several years, some of the time in the South Pacific in U. S. army service.

The football team went to Walla Walla Saturday, accompanied by Coach Golden and Fred Adams. They saw Linfield win over Whitman, and attended the pigskin party at the Whitman hotel.

The football team, accompanied by the band, went to Pilot Rock Thursday. Pilot Rock won 33-6.

The men of the Community Baptist church have the material to put up the bell and worked on the frame Tuesday. They have had a large bell for several years but it has been sitting on the ground.

Rev. and Mrs. Winquist and a Legion and also will attend the American Legion meeting in Ione Tuesday night.

car full of young people attended the youths' rally at Ione Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shoun were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simmons and family got here Saturday evening and are getting settled in the Arthur Sires place, as there is no house on the part of the Steward place that they purchased. Earl Steward is up from Roseburg finishing up the deal. E. S. Pelton bought the other piece of land for his brother-in-law in South Dakota. The brother-in-law and family are to spend the winter in South Dakota.

The Loyal Ladies league of the Baptist Community church will entertain a missionary team consisting of Miss Thelma Allen who was a missionary in Japan before the war, and Miss Isabelle Gates, and one more. Miss Allen will bring a soul-stirring and inspiring message at 7:45.

Rev. Wayne Pasterstrom is holding a revival meeting at the Assembly of God church every evening except Friday night. Rev. and Mrs. Morse occupied the pulpit at the Assembly of God church Sunday morning. They are going to China as soon as they can get passage.

ing up the deal. E. S. Pelton bought the other piece of land for his brother-in-law in South Dakota. The brother-in-law and family are to spend the winter in South Dakota.

The Loyal Ladies league of the Baptist Community church will entertain a missionary team consisting of Miss Thelma Allen who was a missionary in Japan before the war, and Miss Isabelle Gates, and one more. Miss Allen will bring a soul-stirring and inspiring message at 7:45.

Rev. Wayne Pasterstrom is holding a revival meeting at the Assembly of God church every evening except Friday night. Rev. and Mrs. Morse occupied the pulpit at the Assembly of God church Sunday morning. They are going to China as soon as they can get passage.

FREE Pre-School Baby CLINIC

Office of DR. C. C. DUNHAM
Chiropractic Physician
Odd Fellows Building, Heppner
Thursday, Nov. 21

UNION PACIFIC ANNOUNCES Change in Schedules

EFFECTIVE NOV. 10

THERE will be changes in schedules of many Union Pacific trains effective November 10.

These changes are designed to improve the present service and connections for residents of the Pacific Northwest who desire to travel comfortably for business or pleasure.

For complete information, inquire of General Agent, 1st National Bank Bldg., 2nd and Alder Streets, Walla, Wash., Phone 30 or Local Agent be specific—say "Union Pacific"

WINTER VACATIONISTS! Remember... Sun Valley reopens December 21.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

THE SEASONED TRAVELER GOES BY TRAIN

Legionnaires

DON'T FORGET THE ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION NOVEMBER 11

Annual HEPPNER-HERMISTON FOOTBALL GAME at 2:30 P. M.

Buck-Burger Feed at the Odd Fellows Hall for Legionnaires and their families

DANCE at Rhea Creek Grange Hall

Ione, Boardman, Arlington and Hermiston posts attending as well as district officers

Everyone will meet at the Legion Hall prior to, and following the football game where all necessary entertainment will be provided.

Heppner Post No. 87 Legionnaires please meet at the O. K. Rubber Welders at 1:30 P. M. for formation of parade. WEAR YOUR LEGION HATS.

Wanted! Men And Women Who Are Hard Of Hearing

To make this simple, no risk hearing test with Curine drops used with simple syringe. If you are deafened, bothered by ringing, buzzing, head noises due to hardening or congested wax (occlusion), try our Curine Home Method test that so many say has enabled them to hear well again. You must hear better after making this simple test or you get your money back at once. Ask about Curine Ear Drops today at

Humphreys Drug Company

PREVENT A COLD

by using

Vacagen

COLD TABLETS—the oral vaccine.

Nip a cold in the bud and avoid useless suffering and loss of time from Business or social duties.

SAAGER'S PHARMACY

Another Big LIVESTOCK SALE

Runnion Sales Yard

Heppner, Oregon

BEGINNING AT 12:30 P. M.

Thursday, Nov. 14

All Kinds of Livestock

Cows, Calves, Yearling and 2-Year-Old Steers Bred 2-Year-old Heifers, Bulls, Saddle Horses, Work Horses, etc.

All cattle must be brand inspected. All dairy type cattle must be tested.

Persons having livestock to sell may enter them in this sale. Stock arriving at the yards the day before the sale will be fed and watered

The Oct. 17 and 31 sales were big successes This is the land of good livestock If you want to buy or sell, patronize the RUNNION SALES YARD.

TERMS OF SALE: CASH

V. R. "Bob" RUNNION
Auctioneer

HARRY DINGES
Clerk