BRITISH AG EXPERTS STUDY OSC AG RESEARCH

Oregon State college was host recently to three representatives of the British ministry of agriculture and fisheries who visited the campus to obtain information on potato storage, potato seed certification, potato disease control and fruit and vegetable freezing.

The British delegation was particularly interested in methods in this region since conditions in western Oregon are similar in many respects to those in the British isles.

The visitors were Dr. John Barker, food investigations branch, DSIR; Dr. A. R. Wilson, Agricultural Research council; and H. C. Tinsley, a farmer representing the National Farmers Union.

W. A. Schoenfeld, dean of agriculture, who returned recently from a visit to Great Britain as a member of an American agricultural delegation, was in charge of explaining the college research work to the visitors.

The Army Ground Forces offers you A NEW LIFE OUT THERE

Look toward Korea and Japan! A thrilling new job and a new life—with interesting work, sports, entertainment and travel opportunities—can be had for the asking by qualified young men who volunteer for the 1st Cavalry, 11th Airborne, 6th, 7th, 24th or 25th Infantry Divisions.

What an opportunity... what a job! Training in one of these crack units will stand you in good stead wherever you go. Study a foreign language. Learn the fascinating details of Military Government—so vital to future peace and prosperity. Japan's "Isles of Pines" are but a sample of the attractions of an Army career in the Far East. The Army has reopened comfortable hotels, theaters, swimming pools, tennis clubs, golf courses, ball parks. These—familiar haunts of pre-war tourists—and many new developments—provide a broad choice of recreation.

Not everyone can measure up to this job. Only 3-year enlistees who meet prescribed physical and mental standards can enjoy the benefits of such a job. High overseas pay, good food and lodging and a generous retirement plan make your future in the Army Ground Forces too good to miss! See your nearest Army Recruiting Officer for full details.

Listen to "Sound Off," "Warriors of Peace," "Voice of the Army," "I Proudly We'll," and Major Football Broadcasts on your radio.
