Bunchgrass Lodge Host to Rebekahs Of District No. 20

Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge No. 91 was host to the 24th annual convention of District No. 20 at the Willows Grande hall in late Nov. 7. Present were nine members from Holly No. 129, Lexington; 23 from Sans Souci No. 33, Heppner; 11 from Mistletoe No. 23, Hardman; six from Blue Mountain No. 68,

Fossil; 15 from the hostess lodge and eight visitors from neighboring districts and other jurisdictions. Honor guest was the president, Marian Wilson of Bandon. Era Swanson of Bunchgrass lodge gave the address of welcome which was responded to by Mildred Wright of Mistletoe No. 23. Each lodge presented helpful ideas and demonstrated various parts of lodge work. The president answered questions covering many angles of the lodge work. Dinner was served at 6:30 to an

By Mrs. Mary Edwards
 Mrs. Mary Hartman and daughter Cheryl of Los Angeles have arrived for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch. Carl, Oscar and Bert Breeding received word of the death of their father Sunday night. He had been a patient in a Portland hospital and recently underwent a serious operation from which he failed to rally on account of his advanced age. The P-TA will hold its next meeting Monday evening, Nov. 18, at the schoolhouse. All parents and friends are urged to attend. Don't forget the carnival sponsored by the P-TA Saturday, Nov. 16, at the schoolhouse with a dance in the gymnasium. Mrs. Edna Fetsch entertained the executive board of the P-TA at her home Monday evening at which time plans were made for the carnival.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE

Two G. I.'s passing through Hyde Park in London in a jeep, stopped to listen to one of the open-air orators. They felt a bit surprised when the police took no notice of an attack on the monarchy as a "decadent remnant of an outworn feudalism," but felt something was bound to happen when the tub-thumper went on to denounce the police as "paid hirelings of a capitalistic society."

LITTLE BRITCHES OF ETI-KETT

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hornbustle celebrated their golden wedding last Tuesday with a chicken dinner at Gertrude Gooselberry's Deep Fat Chalet. When they got ready to leave Mr. Hornbustle neglected to help his bride of 50 years into the family gas buggy.

Work in the MM degree is on the agenda at the Masonic lodge next Tuesday evening.

The brethren are urged to attend and make this a worthwhile meeting. Remember—Tuesday evening, Nov. 19.

Highlights of the evening were the explanation of the degree work by Sans Souci No. 33, which three candidates were initiated for Bunchgrass No. 91, thus adding stars to their victory banner; the talk by the president, and memorial to the departed brothers and sisters by Holly No. 129 in an impressive ceremony. The convention accepted the invitation of Blue Mountain No. 68 to meet at Fossil in 1947. Officers chosen include Nina Van Horn, Blue Mountain No. 68, chairman; Margaret Thomas, Sans Souci No. 33, vice chairman; and Lilly Schomp, Blue Mountain, and they with the appointive officers, were seated by Blue Mountain No. 68. Thanks, District No. 20, for a very happy day, courteous hospitality and your many smiles.

 Louise Grant,
 Rose Collins,
 Press Committee.

Mrs. Kenneth Palmer is in the Pendleton hospital where she underwent a major operation. She is reported to be getting along nicely. John D. Runyan, pastor of the church at Prosser, Wash., and former resident of Lexington, will hold an evangelistic meeting for the Lexington church beginning Sunday evening, Nov. 17. Mr. Runyan, who is a capable student of prophesy, will give some very interesting sermons on that subject the first few nights. The rest of the time he will devote to sound teaching and evangelism. Rev. Runyan is a strong believer in the words of Jesus, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Everyone in the Lexington community is urged to attend. Everyone is invited.
