Gains of Recent

Years To Be Held,

Greater Effort to

Futue Program

Mark Carry-out of Gains made politically and econ-nically duing the past decade will be held and new advances will be puhed in the years to come. That is the avowed purpose of the National Farm Bureau concurred in by state and local groups through-

At a meeting of the Morrow main points of the farmers' program and showed where the bureau stands on some of the matters of

While the 29 resolutions cover bout all the problems facing agriculture today there are a few of them which bear more directly upon this locality, namely: Resolution

No 3, Farm Programs: "Believing in sumption, we do, however, insist that farmers have the necessary machinery to adjust surplus agricultural commodities to total mar-chasing power and the resulting

A paragraph is devoted to Irri-gation and Water Development.

Since the farm economy of Oregon is greatly influenced by irrigation

On the Columbia Valley author-

Whereas, the welfare and progress gree upon the development and use the purposes for which a Columbia

"However, the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation is opposed to any thority because of the extensive

The list of resoltuions comprise a unbalanced national econom national import today.

out the land.

Booster Club To Stage Dinner For Football Squad

"Nig" Borleske of Whitman College to Be Guest Speaker

Formation of a booster club to sponsor athletic events at the local high school got under way here this week and the first activity of the group will be to stage a banquet for the 1946 football squad. Plans have been completed to stage the banquet at the Church of Christ Wednesday evening, December 11. The home economics department of Heppner yard of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company, is chairman of the booster committee. Other members include Sheriff C. J. D. Bau-Fleck, manager of the Pacific Pow-ways comes through with something It is planned to sell from 100 to be guests of the club.

Chairman Davis says the home a worthwhile feed and in addition the girls are planning a program to augment the speaking.

Pacific Power & Light company office and personally by Sheriff

Project Leaders Training Meeting Held in Heppner

The first county wide home extension project leader training Dick Meador, Pendleton contractor meeting on recreation was held in Heppner at the Methodist church Heppner at the Methodist church on Tuesday, Nov. 26, by Miss Jean willings extension exceller in prepares the land for irrigation and Williams, extension specialist in community and social organizations of Corvallis. Project leaders were selected at the November home extension units by the women of their

The services of project leaders sion program and to extend the Project leaders are trained in subject matter and in the presentation of the demonstration at countywide training meetings. The training is given by a specialist from and the county home demonstration agent. Printed material, directions, and all help possible in arranging details for a successful meeting are given the who usually work in pairs, give their time to attend the training meetings and to prepare the material for presentation to the tion planning is for any occasion or special occasions recreation can be provided for the whole family within the home. Do not be discontented in staying home. There is adventure wthin the house. The type of training given to the women included recreation for homes churches, lodges, youth and adult

There was a one hundred percent attendance of all project leaders at this meeting. The communities represented were Boardman, Mrs. Flossie Coats and Mrs. L. Beatrice Daniels: Irrigon, Mrs. Paul Haberlein, Mrs. Wallace Winquist and Mrs. H. H. Whipple: Hardman, Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. Lillie Reed; Lexington, Mrs. M. V. Nolan and LeVerne Henderson; Ione, Mrs. C. Drake and Mrs. N. K. Dobyns; Lena and Pine City, Mrs. George Currin; Rhea Creek and Eightmile Mrs. Walter Becket, Mrs. Elmer Palmer and Mrs. Dougla Drake; Heppner, Mrs. Palmer Sorlein and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney.

DECEMBER UNIT MEETINGS

The project for the December lanning given by the project leaders of each community. The December calendar of meet ings is as follows: Boardman, Dec. 11, 6:30, Grange hall; Irrigon, Dec. 11, 1:30, Graybea home; Heppner, Dec. 12, 1:30, Methodist church rooms; Lexington, Dec. 13, 1:30, Ladies Ald room; Ione, Dec. 17, 1:30, Congregational church rooms; Rhea Creek and Eightmile, Dec. 19, 10:30, Harold Wright home; Lena and Pine City, Dec. 21, 7:30, George Currin home.

The Heppner meeting will be preceded by a luncheon at the Lucas

IT'S A BOY

A baby boy was born Thursday morning, December 5, 1946, to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson Jr. at a and Mrs. Harley Anderson will be GYPSUM FROM NOVA SCOTIA. LUMBER FROM THE hospital in The Dalles.

News From C. A. Office has been increasing so rapidly in Oregon that additional testers are now needed to handle the work reports H. P. Ewalt, assistant extenion dairyman at Oregon State col-

Twenty-six men are now emloyed in testing, six of whom work only among pure bred herds, under

The supervisors of the Heppner Soil Conservation district report that Ralph Beamer has completed two miles of contour terraces recently on his ranch west of Heppman, Jack Burns, manager of the cently on his ranch west of Hepp-Marshall-Wells store, and Don ner. These terraces will serve as R. V. "Nig" Borleske, veteran coach of Whitman college at Walla Walla and incidentally, dean of college blow, the terraces will not inter- Order of Eastern Star, in Ione. She coaches in this western country. fere with farming operations. The took an active interest in the Girl he doesn't choose to remain down.

Those who have heard "Nig" on numerous occasions say that he al- Conservation technicians cooperat- member of the Book Worms. To ing with the Heppner district. Other recent soil conservation work in the Heppner district in- esteem by all who knew her and 150 tickets to the banquet. The cludes the construction of diversion football squad, some 35 strong, will ditches to control runoff and prevent gulleying on the Frank Anderson ranch, deep furrow grass economics department will put on seedings for pasture and erosion ranch below Heppner and the Newt O'Harra ranch at Lexington. Broad- ated the Standard Oil company the Turn-A-Lum Lumber company cast gulley seedings have been plant. The family lived in Ione sevoffice, the Marshall-Wells store, the made on the Blue Mountain ranch eral years before moving to Heppoperated by John Wightman.

Use of the rotary subsoiler, loanplowpan and catches all moisture Helena. for storage in the soil Eighty acres of land leveling have een completed in the district and is now working on the Orian Wright secures increased yields through the proper application of available water. Land leveling has been completed on ranches owned by Newt tion on their farms.

county committees to make recom-mendations on topics to be consid-ered at the Eastern Oregon Wheat and Maryland; Mr. and Mrs. Art Stefani and Verner Troedson.

Earl Barnett, an expert cleaner and presser, recently joined the force at the Heppner Cleaners and

The three topics to be discussed man. The Morrow county committee mendations made by these com-Everyone is invited to attend the Morrow county committee meeting the dates.

Katherine Monahan, home deminstration agent and N. C. Anderon, county agent, are spending this State college, Corvallis, attending the annual extension conference. on the job on December 9, with a lot of new information to pass on

Repairs Made to Bakery Building to the farm families.

Art Stefani and Sam Esteb have been in Heppner several days this week making repairs to Stefani's bulding which suffered damage from fire in the Heppner bakery. The walls were cased in around session some unit meetings will the furnace and a new flue was built to eliminate possibility of a recurrence of damage from fire. Stefani, who says he learned how to mix mortar when a boy, did the mixing the first day, but when the shovel handle got hot he had business elsewhere and turned the job over to Vaunnie Adams. (At least, that's the way it appeared to a casual passer by.)

SOCIAL CLUB MEETING

The social club of Ruth chapter No. 32, O. E. S., will meet Saturday afternoon. December 7. The group will go to the Episcopal bazaar at the parish house for refreshments at 1:40 p.m. The door prize will be drawn at 1:45. Chinese checkers the Masonic hall. Mrs. R. L. Benge FROM TURKEY CLASSASE FROM HOLLAND and cards will then be in play at

Prominent Matron Claimed By Death Monday Morning

Mrs. L. E. Dick Succumbs After Lingering Illness

the direction of F. P. Walberg, as-p.m., Wednesday, to pay their resistant professor of dairy husban-spects to the memory of Mrs. L. E. sistant professor of dairy husbandry. The others are employed as association supervisors, testing some ily residence in the Hiatt apartments Monday morning. Archdeaiobe pay $200 cows in 16 counties. The inches are supervisors, testing some ily residence in the Hiatt apartments Monday morning. Archdeaiobe pay $200 cows in 16 counties. The charge of the graveside service.

all these activities she gave her best efforts. She was held in high Martha Ann Ashton was born July 18, 1889 at Helena, Montana. She was married to L. E. Dick Dec. control on the L. H. Rill ranch 3, 1914 at Spokane and they lived above Eightmile, the Pat Mollahan in several states before coming to Ione in 1922 where Mr. Dick operner where they have resided since. Surviving besides the husband ed to the district for demonstration are two sons, L. E. Dick Jr. and by the state experiment station at Kemp Dick, and three grandsons, Moro, was completed last on the four sisters, Mrs. Ed O'Donnell, Blaine Chapel ranch at Hardman. Mrs. Tom Hillis. Mrs. DeForrest The subsoiler, which penetrated a Reed and Mrs. H. L. Mills, and a write vaugin took it in depth of 12 inches, breaks up the brother William E. Ashton, all of

Festive Board Well Surrounded at W. M. Eubanks Home

Walt Eubanks writes us from Arlington that he and Mrs. Eubanks Heppner Cleaners had a real Thanksgiving at their home. It looked kind of like old O'Harra, Delbert Emert, Ed Rugg, home week in Ione with a change Members and chairmen of the Case Brenner and sons, Leroy, ounty committees to make recom-

It was disappointing to Mr. and Dyers. and Transportation, Fred Mankin, not be present. Blily Eubanks is hairman, and Taxation and Leg- employed in the Western Union of PARENTS TO ENTERTAIN islation, Werner Rietmann, chair- fice in ortland and could not get Parents represented in the Paraway.

meetings will be held on Monday, REBUILDING NATTER HOUSE rebuild the former Natter house or mittees will be presented for consideration at the Eastern Oregon Wheat league to be held at La done for C. F. Hodge for the purdone for C. F. Hodge for the purMISSED APPOINTMENTS

MISSED APPOINTMENTS

MISSED APPOINTMENTS

MISSED APPOINTMENTS

MISSED APPOINTMENTS

Debyens unior warden to the pur Doubleton matter. Noel

Doubleton matters and control of worshipful master. Noel

Doubleton matters and control of wo

Can't Keep Good Man Down Even In Wheel Chair

All his life until about four years ago Henry Schwarz was an active man. He learned the butcher's trade butcher. In following that trade through its various phases he had to work hard, and he knew nothing of union hours as applied to trades these days. Then the blow came. A as follows: Sorrowing friends gathered at All sary to amputate one of his sep-and after many months as a bedfast patient he regained sufficient to be transferred to a jobs pay $200 per month plus room con Neville Blunt officiated, and the weary hours. Finally he took thurst Jr., chairman; Sam G. Mcand board. Mr. Ewalt would like to Mrs. C. C. Dunham sang "O Master up knitting, and since learning to hear from any single men with a Let Me Walk With Thee" and "Now "purl one, knit two" he has turned regular member; C. K. Peck, first the high school will prepare and serve the dinner.

Farnk Davis, manager of the The Davis of the Davis of the Davis of the Davis presiding at the organ Increment was in the family plot in his sons and their sons and made the Davis of the Davis of the Davis presiding at the organ Increment was in the family plot in his sons and their sons and made the Davis of the Dav the Ione cemetery, with the Locust numerous pothoiders and other use-chapter of the Eastern Star in ful articles. Unable to get out and vice chairman; Floyd Worden, regraise a garden so he could com- ular member; Oren Brace, first al-Until state of her health forced pete with some of the gardeners her to remain at home, Mrs. Dick mentioned herein of late, Henry took a prominent part in church sent a sample of his work to the permanent guide lines for contour and civic affairs. She was a mem- Gazette Times office which the seeding and at the same time will ber of All Saints Episcopal church, "neck" of this institution pronouner & Light company office here.
Speaker of the evening will be seeding and at the same time will ber of All Saints Episcopal church, "neck" of this institution pronoun-hold surface runoff moisture. Made the American Legion auxiliary and ces the equal of most feminine knit-

This all adds up to the fact that you can't keep a good man down if dearly loved by her closest asso-

Kenneth Vaughn and Robert of & Morrow county young man in Blackwell announced early this that city on November 24. week that they are preparing to open a cleaning and pessing shop in Heppner some time next week. The concern will be ready for bus- day afternoon in the home of her iness Monday if the gas they will parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Root, use for heating purposes can be installed before that time.

Vaughn and Blackwell were em- ficiated at the single-ring rites, ployed for several months at the "The groom's sister, Katherine ployed for several months at the while Vaughn took it up last spring.

The new plant. The Morrow the candles. County Cleaners, will be located in

Bremerton Man Buys Interest in Chester M. Enos of Bremerton, Wash., has purchased an interest in Harold Wright, Ray Wright, and of locale. The guest list included the Heppner Cleaners and Dyers Walter Wright Many creek bottom Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks and from his daughter. Mrs. Adelle from his daughter. Mrs. Adelle help to build a larger home exten- farmers are waiting for this opera- children, Donald and Sandra; Mr. Hannan, and has come to Heppner and Mrs. Howard Eubanks and to live. While not a practical cleandaughter Marlene; Mr. and Mrs. er and dyer, Mr. Enos will work into the business and help Mrs.

are: Federal Agricultural Programs Mrs. Eubanks that her son, Leland to its policy of three-day service, and Land Use, Steve Thompson, Leathers, who is still in the service, and one-day service in emergency chairman; Production, Marketing and his son Billy and family could ent-Teacher association will entertain the teachers and other attending the party at 8 p.m. Friday eve-December 9, at Heppner, beginning of at 10 a.m. Resolutions and recom- workmen started work Monday to music room at the school house. Refreshments will be served.

France on December 16, 17 and 18. pose of providing housing for an son-Acousticon Co., Pendleton, met employee. This is one of the older with an accident which kept her year was raised to senior warden. Weston Emory had been on a trip houses of the town and to make from keeping appointments in and Harold Becket, senior deacon, to Portland and came this way for and to be present for the annual it over on a more modern plan will Heppner and other points. She sufmeeting at La Grande. Don't forget vequire the virtual rebuilding of the fered a head injury when her car Frank S. Parker, treasurer and Ray

Ships and Reconversion

AAA Committee Members Chosen at County Meetings To Tax Collector

Morrow county held its annual J. Turner, chairman; B. J. Doherty AAA elections last week to elect vice chairman; Harry Duvall, reguommunity committeemen for the lar member; H. M. Miller, first nine communities and the county alternate; W. A. Munkers, second committee. In most cases the older alternate. members were retained. The re-sult of the county convention and the nine community meetings are vice chairman; Alva Jones, regular County committee: Henry Baker, ternate; E. E. Rugg, second alterchairman; R. S. Thompson, vice nate. chairman; Don Kenny, regular member; Alec Lindsay, first alternate, and Kenneth Smouse, second vice chairman; Roy Lindstrom, regalternate.

Lexington community: Wm. Sme low, chairman; Raymond Lundell, ternate, and Ben Anderson, second alternate. Ione community: Chas, McElli- nate, gott, chairman; E. C. Heliker, vice alternate; Lloyd Rice, second alter-

North Heppner community: Sam alternate

La Grande Ceremony

From the LaGande Evening Oberver we learn of the marriage

"At the reception following the served cake and Mrs. Joe Shepro

Banker Chosen To

Head Masonic Lodge

Heppner Chapter No. 69, A. F. &

A. M. in meeting Tuesday evening elected officers for the ensuing year.

Gordon Banker was elevated from or this event is December 21.

reunion this week. With the return of Jack Edmondson from Japan and Joe Hughes from McMinnville, Alfred Rugg came in from Knowles from Camp 5 to make the guartet complete. Days of old are being lived over and the boys are doing some planning for the days that lie ahead, each of them plan-

Clayton Wright drove to Pendle-on Wednesday to get Mrs. Wright and their new daughter, Claytha

Mrs. J. O. Rasmus, proprietor of was accompanied on the trip by ing Mrs. Rasmus's absence.

Rene, who was born at St. Anning to go to college.

thony's hospital.

Butter Creek Man

Takes Bride at

Bishop Barton Due Here Wednesday

Eastern Oregon district of the Episcopal church, is scheduled to visit ney of the Presbyterian church of- day he held services at Pendleton end at Milton. His itinerary called for visits at LaGrande. Baker, On-Heppner Cleaners & Dyers. Black- O'Brien, was maid of honor, and tario, Nyssa, Vale, Burns, Lakeview bridesmaid, and Ella Jean Cade lit and Heppner.

"The bride, an alumna of La Saints church followed by a recepthe Farra building, corner Main and Grande high school, wore a grey tion in the parish house at 7:30 p.m., dressmaker suit with a pink hat Wednesday evening. trimmed with sequins and a veil.

Her corsage was red roses and district Bishop and Mrs. Barton will return to Orange, N. J., to pack "The maid of honor wore a blue dressmaker suit and a corsage of Oregon.

"At the reception to be a series of Elks Pay Tribute To Departed in "Out-of-town guests were Mrs, It L. Boswell of Payette; Mrs. Wiliam Boyer and daughters of On-grandmother) and Mrs. P. E. Wright turned out Sunday afternoon to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. pay tribute to departed brothers of attle spent the week end at the Dan this bill to a thee-man board of Lewiston; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Francis Nickerson, in his initial Wilkins (the groom's steplather and address on such an occasion, hand-mother), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hos-led his subject nicely, bringing out Among those home from various tion and control of such develop kins, Isabella O'Brien, Patrick O'- the point that we should not mourn colleges for the holidays were Jack ment should be vested with the pleasant associations with them Messenger and Patty O'Harra.

Local Co-Op Pays Sizeable Check

member; Ralph Beamer, first al-Morgan community: Werner Rietmann, chairman; M. J. Fitzpatrick, Morrow County Grain Growers, ular member; C. W. Troedson, first Inc., with warehouse and elevator properties at Heppner, Lexington, one and McNab, is a farmer cooperative organized six or seven Aside from meeting County Farm Bureau at the Rhea years ago. regular obligations, the concern has Creek grange hall Monday evening, made numerous extensive improve- a discussion of the 29 resolutions ments and is one of the outstanding passed at the recent state meeting businesses of the county. A check held at the Columbia Gorge hotel, Irrigon community: Carl Knighen, chairman; D. J. Kenny, vice chairman; Paul Slaughter, regular member; Herbert Ames, first alternate; Rufus McCoy, second alter-gott, chairman; E. C. Heliker, vice chairman; E. Markham Baker, reg-Skoubo, chairman; Wilbur Lehman, ular member; Lee Beckner, first vice chairman; Earl H. Briggs, regular member; Earl Downey, first alternate; Arnold Hoffman, second alternate; Cecil Thorne, second al-

Alpine community: A. C. Lindsey, chairman; Olney Saling, vice chairman; W. J. Doherty, regular member; Elsie Beach, first alternate; Randall Martin, second alter-the district, spending this week in the eastern and southern sections.

Bishop and Mrs. Barton arrived direction of Mrs. Haycroft, presentin Pendleton Saturday and on Sun- ed several numbers which were well has had eight years experience with the American Farm Buwhile Vaughn took it up last spring. best man. Mary Ann Davies was Prineville, Hood River, The Dalles and family of Springvale, Utah, reau Federation in establishing a There will be a service in All

Following this initial visit to the Memorial Service

An audience comfortably filling visiting in the seating capacity at the Elks hall Lexington ario; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McGriff, Mrs. Anna Wright (the bride's Shanks and Mrs. Beverly Taylor of the order.

paid by the larger concerns operating within the county, public utilities mostly, one of the larger checks was overlooked. This has been brought to our attention and after checking up with Chief Deputy Frances Mitchell in the tax department at the court house, it is found that one of the larger contributors to the county's coffers is the Morrow County Grain Growers,

By Mary Edwards an economy of abundance and Although schools were closed in standing ready to join with labor By Mary Edwards much appreciated by all present. Mrs. Sophia Ansted spent the agriculture, we request the Oregon Thanksgiving holiday at Medford. Farm Bureau Federation to cooper-irrigation and water reclamation for ther, Mrs. Elsie Beach. Miss Edith Edwards left Sunday the purpose of studying and analyzfor Spokane to resume her work as ing present and proposed irrigateacher in Kinman Business uni- tion projects." ersity.

The physical education classes were conducted in a heated gym. ents and friends.

Breshears home Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMillan of the natural resources in that and family spent Thanksgiving at area, we are heartily in accord with

Mr. and Mrs Vernon Warner and Valley Authority might be estabtwo children returned to Portland lished. Sunday after spending the holidays at the H. E. Warner home. Mrs. Etta Hunt of Portland is bill such as the Senate Bill 1716 for isiting relatives and friends in establishing a Columbia Valley Au-Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vinson of Se- powers and authority granted by Way home.

Mrs. Elsie Beach is spending a directors, appointed by the President and clothed with the power of lengthy document, too much for reprinting. Cochell were the vocalists and Mrst Thanksgiving holidays with his par- ed Monday evening concerned the states involved."

One matter of business transactnumber of meetings the bureau discussion it was decided to have six meetings instead of nine or ten as during the past two years. These neetings will be held on the first Monday of February, April, June, H. I. Story, secretary of the State Farm Bureau Federation was present and helped fill in the discussion on the resoltuions. He made deacon and Mrs. Neville Blunt. She a request for a representative of the county bureau to attend the national convention being held in San Frnacisco next week, cal bueau was presented with a $25 check from the state federation ship count through 1945. The bureau added $25 to the fund to try to induce someone to go to t convention.

The ladies of the Rhea Creek grange served supper prior to the

DEMOLAY TO INITIATE

A class of 15 candidates will be put though the initiatory work of the Order of DeMolay at the Masonic temple in Heppner Monday evening. December 9. The boys of the class represent the several communities embraced in the local De-Molay district, including towns and surrounding communities of liam county.

EDWARDS RANCH SOLD

A deal was closed this week Edward farm in Sand Hollow to Harry Duvall Mr and Mrs. Ed-Hillsboro where they have built a new home. They plan to leave

They were joined there by Miss chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern followed by initiatory work

When the Gazette Times repre-

Farm Bureau Says

for this year's taxes in the sum of Hood River, by George N. Peck of $7,304.04 is ample proof of its sta-

Lexington School Not Slowed a Whit By Power Break

the neighboring communities Wed- and industry to achieve maximum nesday, all classes went on as usual production and employment thru at the Lexington school even the price and wage policies which are the furnace is run by an electric geared to a maximum level of con-

In the afternoon the grade and Heppner Wednesday, December 11. high school gave a Thanksgiving ket demands so as to prevent the With Mrs. Barton he is on a tour of program to a large audience of par- wrecking of farm prices, farm pur-Our new school band, under the spent Thanksgiving with his mo- national farm bureau committee on

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Crump and ity, the resolution says in part: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whillock and families spent Thanksgiving at the of any area depends to a large the S. G. McMillan home.

Government; whereas, the direc-

Brien and Gordon O'Brien, of Hepp- our departed but enjoy the mem- O'Harra, Kenneth and Marcella ory of their good deeds and our Jackson, Majo Marquardt, Rena when they were among the living. Harold Ludwig was home from Miss Marguerite Glavey and Billy Oregon State college to spend the

Tom Wells presided at the piano. ents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ludwig. News Briefs Around Town

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rood enjoy-| Stanley Minor left the first of year, was raised to senior warden, Weston. Emory had been on a trip Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor. was given the junior warden station. a short visit.

Mr and Mrs. Guy Huston spent McAllister, secretary, were retain-ed in their respective posts.

All and Mrs. Serving deacon and Mrs. Never is Mrs. Blunt's sister.

Mrs. Blunt's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jev. or the big annual turkey dinner which is held in connection with the joint installation ceremonies of the joint installation ceremonies of there has been some rain in that to a major surgical operation. the Masons and Eastern Star. Date section this fall. Guy thinks it is Mr. Jewett returned Friday but Four of Heppner high school's declare it a good all-year place to at Aberdeen until after Christmas. ormer stalwarts have been holding

Mr. Jewett held evangelistic meet-Heppner business visitors last ings week before last at Sweet week were A. E. Davis of Board- Tome. man and R. M. McCoy of Irrigon. They had business at the tax collecthe Rhea creek ranch and Don tor's office.

> property in Morrow county and was here until that time. nterviewing the tax collector while F. L. Huntting of Irrigon was a jarian of Pendleton and Mrs. James Scattle. Cowins and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Here to attend the funeral of lorah's shop, is in Scattle this week Warfield and son Jim were Thanks- Mrs. L. E. Dick were her four sizbuying stock for her store. She family reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weldin of Fossil were house guests of Mr. and minal leave, having recently rethe University of Oregon. The cember 13 There will be election Mrs. Frank Engkraf over the week turned from Japan where he saw Heppner folks returned home Monor of officers for the ensuing year, service with the occupational forces. day night.

Mrs. Charles Vaughn. Mrs. Elbert Cox is in charge of the store dur-

Allyn at Lexington.

ed a visit over the week end with the week for Dallesport, Wash., to September, October and December. Dobyns, junior warden the current Mrs. Rood's son, Emory Gentry of spend a few days at the home of Miss Mary Paget of Victoria B. C. is a guest at the home of Arch-

> Saturday, and leaving Tuesday on the return trip. They are well pleas-Aberdeen, Wash., last week where ed with their new location, although on Wednesday, Mrs. Jewett submita good place to winter, perhaps, Mrs. Jewett and the twins, Robert while Mrs. Huston goes all out to Dean and Doris Jean will remain

Joe Hughes Jr. returned home last week from McMinnville where he has been employed the past Barney Doherty of Echo was three months. He contemplates entransacting business in Heppner the latter part of the week. He owns first of January and will remain

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Tash and Jack and Dick Edmondson drove to Bend last week to spend Thanks Heppner visitor last week.

Nels Kristensen, Boardman farmer, was a county seat visitor Monfamily were present, including Mr. Mrs. Ruth McNeil and Robert Na- Tash's daughter and family from giving dinner guests of Mrs. G. M. ters, Mrs. Ed O'Donnell, Mrs. Tom Hillis, Mrs. DeForrest Reed and Mr. and Mrs. William Cowins en- Mrs. H. L. Mills, and brother, Wiljoyed a Thanksgiving dinner with liam E Ashton, all of Helena, Mont. their children. The Heppner rela- and Mr. Dick's mother, Mrs. Rose tives, including James Cowins, Mr. Wilson of Rimini, Mont., and sister, Here to spend Thanksgiving with and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell and fam- Mrs. A. J. McDonald of Portland. Mrs. Rigg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. ily and Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Case, Pete M. D. Clark, were Mr. and Mrs. were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Prophet and Alex Thompson spent INITIATION AND ELECTION

M. D. Clark, were Mr. and Mrs. were joined by a were joined by the state of the sta Jack Edmondson is home on ter- Josephine Case who is a student at Star, for the regular meeting De-