Wins 'Keep Green' Essay Competition

Eleanor Mitchell, of Yamhill. A seventeen-year-old school girl from Route 1, Yamhill, Eleanor Mitchell, won the coveted first prize in the annual essay contest for all Oregon Green Guards, according to Bert Johnson, Morrow county chairman of the Keep Oregon Green association. Judges gave cash and other valuable prizes to 22 boys and girls throughout Oregon, all members of the junior division of the fire prevention association. The contest was open to every one of the thousands of Green Guards and the theme was, "Why I Am A Green Guard."

Miss Mitchell won a Bulova watch. Winners of second prizes were James Spores, Crow Stage Pt., Eugene; Charles D. Colegrove, Junction City, and Margaret C. Colegrove, Junction City, who each received $10 in cash. In the intermediate division these girls each won a new bicycle: Mary Jo Bean, Rt. 1, Box 1, Woodburn and Darlene Owen, Rt. 3, Junction City. A $10 second prize went to Robert Hewitt, 145 Wander Way, Salem and a third prize of $5 was awarded to Darlene Buxton, Wilma Emerson, and Carole Lee Moore, Richland, Freda Swanson and

Endorses March of Dimes

President Harry S. Truman (above), in a letter to Basil O'Connor, President of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, pledged full cooperation in the Foundation's 1946 March of Dimes. President Truman said: "There can be no slow-down in the fight against disease. Our victories abroad must be followed by a victory on the home front against this common enemy of all mankind. I am certain that no American can fail to respond to such a challenge."

An unprecedented epidemic (nearly 25,000 cases) of polio in 1946 exhausted the reserve funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. . . It requires $1200 to treat one average case. With another epidemic season ahead, there is need for an unlimited fund to meet all emergencies.

REMEMBER! 50 percent of the funds subscribed in Morrow County remain here for use in aiding local polio cases. . . .

Keep this in mind and make your contribution accordingly.

The undersigned business concerns of Morrow County urge your generous support for this worthy cause. There is no fixed quota, but remember, the need is great. . . Morrow County has never failed a worthy cause and we know it will come through this time.
