NEW CROP INSURANCE PLAN UNDER TEST IN BAKER CO.
Federal crop insurance on a new uniform area coverage plan is being tried this year in Baker county and eventually may be extended to other Oregon counties, according to Muri E. Cummings, state director for the federal crop insurance corporation. Under the plan Baker county has been divided into nine insurance areas, on the basis of soil types, topography, farming practices and climatic conditions, Cummings explained. All farms in each area are offered the same insurance coverage on wheat crops. Amount of coverage in each area as set by the county AAA committee ranges from 7 bushels in the high risk area to 22.5 bushels in the best district.
