

4-H CLUB NEWS

Beef club meeting is to be held at the Elmer Palmer ranch near Eightmile on Sunday, April 27. Demonstration teams will give their demonstration in preparation for the Eastern Oregon Wheat League show, The Dalles, May 27-28. Plans for attending the show will be made at this meeting.

Club members Ida Lee Chapel, Ronald Baker, Duane Baker, Jo Anne Graves, Betty Graves, Neil Beamer, Ingrid Herman and Vesta Cutsforth are furnishing fat steers for the Eastern Oregon Wheat League show.

Two additions to the central staff of the state 4-H club office at Oregon State college have been recently announced.

Mrs. Winifred Gillen, home demonstration agent in Klamath county since 1938, will become assistant state 4-H club leader on May 5, and will work with Miss Helen Cowgill in directing the projects for girls. Miss Cowgill has been assistant state leader for more than 30 years, making an outstanding record in this state.

Mrs. Gillen goes to her new position with a broad background of experience gained since she was graduated in home economics at Iowa State college. This includes high school teaching experience, work in menu planning in Chicago tea rooms, supervision of a home management house and her recent work as county home demonstration agent.

The new appointee is a widow with one daughter, 13, who is now in her fourth year of 4-H club work. Mrs. Gillen has been active in Klamath county club work, helping conduct shows, fairs, the club camps in training local leaders.

The second addition to the state staff is Mrs. Geraldine Danz who will be assistant county club agent at large. She will assist in judging spring fairs and in preparing and conducting home economics phases of the club summer school. She is a graduate of Oklahoma A. and M. college with previous experience as a county club agent in Kansas.

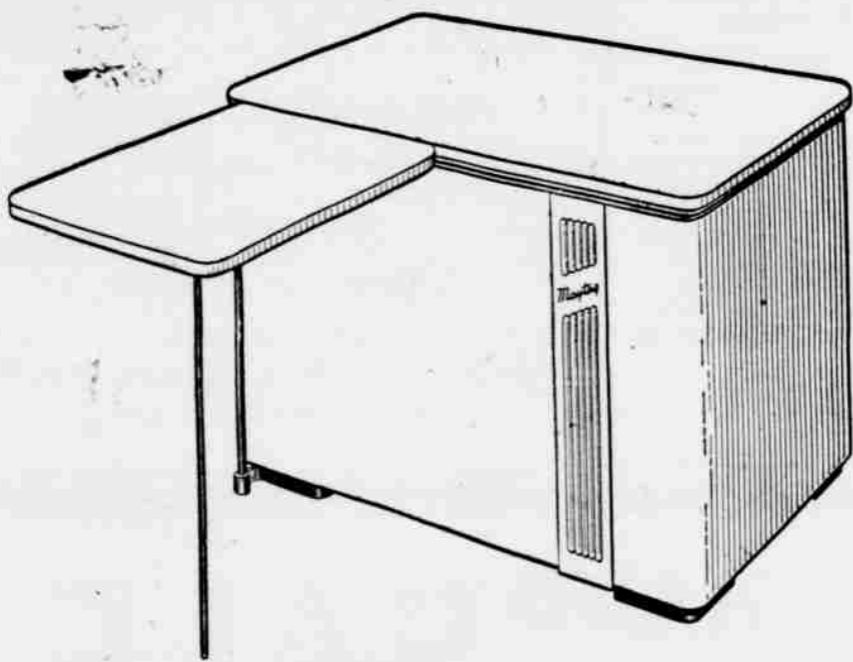

DIST. NO. 25—BOARDMAN

The Woodcraft and Art club held its eighth meeting Monday. The president, Jerry Beaver, called the meeting to order. We gave the pledge to the flag and the club pledge and motto, then we sang "Dip, Boys, Dip the Oar." The secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting and the rollcall, which was to be announced.

News From C. A. Office

Newt O'Hara, Lexington farmer recently installed a sprinkler irrigation system at his farm. With this sprinkler, Mr. O'Hara will irrigate a small pasture near his farm buildings. The pasture has been seeded to a mixture of ladino clover, smooth brome and tall fescue which provides a maximum amount of pasture forage under irrigation. The water for irrigation will be pumped from a well on the farm. Mr. O'Hara has purchased a supply of nitrogen fertilizer which will be applied to the new seeding within a few days. The amount of nitrogen to be applied at the rate of 150 pounds per acre, will assure the grass seedlings of getting off to a good start.

Two meetings of the Morrow-Gilliam Cricket Control association have been held in the past week. These meetings were of an emergency nature as the cricket infestations in north Morrow and Gilliam counties has developed to a greater extent than first anticipated. Funds for the cricket control program were boosted when Morrow county court agreed to put up $750 for immediate use. Gilliam and Sherman county courts have agreed on this amount also. Voluntary contributions have exceeded $3000 and more is coming in. With the present program and cooperation that farmers, county courts and bureau of entomology are giving a good control program can be carried out. Sixteen men are mixing bait, scouting areas of infestation and baiting, six days a week. Morrow county has 20,000 acres of heavy and 30,000 acres light infestation of Mormon crickets at the present time.

Clifton Slack and E. E. Rugg, Heppner, report that their Guernsey were by something about birds. The reporter was absent so the reporter of the health club reported.

We will answer the roll with memory gems about trees at the next meeting, April 28. Wilbur Platt, reporter; Mabel Montgomery, leader.

4-H SEWING II

The club was organized April 12 in the home economics room at the Heppner school. The girls basted and sewed their dresses. They have them almost finished. The refreshments were ice cream down at Scotty's—Rieta Mae Graves, reporter.

sey calves received from the Tillamook County Dairy Improvement association are doing well. They were well pleased with the condition and healthiness of the calves. These calves were purchased through this office from the Tillamook association, and sired by registered sires and from cows with a 300-lb. or more butterfat average.

RURAL TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS HEAVIEST IN SUMMER

Rural traffic accidents take the heaviest toll of human life and property damage during summer months. Sheriff G. J. D. Bauman said today, as he announced his office was cooperating with the office of Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell Jr. in campaigning against traffic accidents during the months, May, June, July and August.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"As Homelike As a Barn"

Cy Hartman finally got his new barn painted, but plenty of folks had a hand in it. Whenever someone got a free day, or a little extra time, they'd come over and help out with paint and brush. And Cy, to show his appreciation, held a big "barn warming" Saturday—for all the folks who'd helped him (but not barring those who couldn't). Ma Hartman supplied sandwiches, and Cy rolled out a mellow keg of beer. You'd never think of a barn as "homelike." But with those lanterns hanging from the rafters; makeshift tables spread heavy with food; and Ed Carey's fiddle playing while the folks enjoyed their beer—Cy's barn was sure a mighty hospitable-looking place! From where I sit, it's just about as appropriate to have a barn warming as a housewarming... if only because it's another chance to get neighbors together in a spirit of good fellowship.
