The Verdict

We advertised this unusual and novel melodrama earlier in the season but it did not arrive. It is from a slick script and has an excellent cast including Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre, George Coulouris.

Also on the same program are two outstanding short subjects: A musical with Dean Arner and his Orchestra and ALICE IN MOGLIELAND. Ed Sullivan's short story is made into a movie short with Joan Leslie.

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY, June 18-19

Boom Town

Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, Claudette Colbert, Hedy Lamarr, Frank Morgan, Lionel Atwill. A reissue of a great film unmatched for magnificence... a chronicle of the days when Burkini Bennett was an oil camp full of fight, enterprise and gait and ankle-deep in mud.

GAS & AIR . . .

Howdy Folks! Considering the weather, this should be a cold column. This is the season that's so cold the wind even howls about it.

COLD WEATHER ADVICE
If you wish to have a short winter, have your nose come due in the spring.

Anyhow, while many are cold, few are frozen. (There's a deep one.)

The only thing bad weather is good for is conversation.

Jack the coal dealer says that the first real touch of winter is the coal dealer's.

Everyone should have a thermometer. If you haven't one, get it now for they'll be a lot higher in summer.

Why go south for the winter when you have a lot of winter here?

And why go elsewhere for complete automobile service when we can supply you needs so thoroughly?

Unrein Motor Service

Taylor and the first great grandchild of L. W. Briggs, county treasurer.

Leo White of Tonasket, Wash., is visiting his brother, Harvey, proprietor of White's cafe.

Betty Lovgren and the Misses Doris and Dorothy Worden are home from Eastern Oregon College at La Grande for the summer vacation.

Miss Margaret Gillis went to Portland Sunday to be gone a couple of weeks. Her main objective is the refresher course for public health nurses but as an aside she hoped to find some time to enjoy the Rose festival.

Ray Massey went to Portland

Monday to consult an eye specialist. He suffered a fractured jaw and other injuries June 1

when struck in the face by a ball during the three-inning game between Heppner and Condon. An x-ray disclosed three fractures of the jawbone and it later developed that he suffered an eye injury as well.

The Life Line

The life line—your backbone—is the real zone of youth. Keep this vital region strong and straight and supple and it will keep you young and healthy.

NORMAL NERVE FUNCTION

—in the organs and limbs creates dynamic health. Lack of nerve function permits your limbs to wither, organs to function poorly, your whole body to become listless. Look to the life line for the source of vital nerve energy.
