

Weddings Rule News at Boardman

At a beautiful ceremony in the First Christian church in The Dalles, Eleanor Axelgarde Skoubo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Skoubo of Boardman and Tolvo Similla of Portland were married at 4 p.m. Sunday, June 15, the Rev. Cecil Warner Sr. performing the double-ring service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in long white taffeta with fingertip veil, carrying a white bible with gardenia flowers. Her maid of honor was her twin sister, Asta Skoubo, wearing pink and corsage of sweetpeas. Bridesmaids were Erna and Dagmar Skoubo, sisters of the bride, and Daphne Gilbert of Portland, niece of the bridegroom. Best man was Geo. Similla, brother of the groom, and usher was Gunner Skoubo, brother of the bride. Little Barbara Anderegg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderegg, was flower girl, and Jimmie Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Garrison of Oregon City, was ring bearer. Maxine Ely and Carolyn Steard of Boardman were candle lighters.

Mrs. Russell DeMauro (Frances Skoubo), cousin of the bride sang two songs, "Because," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Ruby Schmidt.

A reception followed in the church basement where the bride and groom cut the first piece of a three-tiered cake, this being served by Mrs. Paime of Hermiston. Mrs. Chas. Anderegg of Boardman poured the coffee and Mrs. Cecil Warner of The Dalles was at the punch bowl. Miss Patricia Warner was in charge of the gift book.

The bride and groom were presented with a silver service for eight from Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Paime and Dr. Marble of Hermiston.

At a beautiful wedding ceremony Sunday in The Dalles at the Baptist church at 3 p.m. June 15, Lois Ellen Messenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Messenger, became the bride of Mr. Ronald Alvin Willett, with the Ministers Lasi and Cleveland performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who was dressed in dark blue, and was lovely in a white gabardine suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible with orchid and lavender streamers with small white flowers. The groom wore grey with a white carnation. The altar was decorated with calla and regal lilies with bells on white streamers. Mrs. Shirley Spiekerman sang two songs, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Roth.

Mrs. Frank Hammell of The Dalles, sister of the bride, was matron of honor who wore a grey suit with a corsage. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Don Boach of Enterprise, wearing a yellow suit. Rena June Messenger of Lexington, niece of the bride and Jessie Berger of The Dalles were candle lighters, each wearing blue suits.

Best man was Glenn Willett and the ushers were Jedd and Mike Willett, all brothers of the groom.

At the reception which followed, Mrs. Leonard of Portland served the wedding cake, while Mrs. Truman Messenger of Lexington and Mrs. E. J. Sharp did the pouring. Miss Marie Messenger and Mrs. Robert Berger assisted in the serving. Mrs. U. H. Messenger of Portland had charge of the guest book.

The wedding of Miss Charlotte Jacqueline Wooley, daughter of Mrs. Bernedette Wooley of Alberta, Canada, to Donald Clyde Tannehill, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, was an event of Sunday, June 22, in the Boardman Catholic church, the Rev. O'Sullivan of Pendleton performing the ceremony at high noon.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Luke Bulger of Alberta. She wore a white dress, street length with a white hat and carried her grandmother's rosary. Her flowers were an old fashioned bouquet.

Mrs. Bell Campbell, an aunt of the bride, also of Canada, was matron of honor. She wore black and carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

Best man was Keith Tannehill, brother of the groom.

A wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, Mrs. Campbell, aunt of the bride, assisting Mrs. Tannehill with the serving.

Only immediate members of the families were present. Coming from Alberta, Canada, were the bride's mother, Mrs. Bernedette Wooley; her grandmother, Mrs. Bulger; an uncle, Luke Bulger; aunt, Mrs. Bell Campbell, and a cousin, Regina Frazier. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, and brothers Keith and Lyle, were also present, the latter coming from Eugene Saturday for the wedding.

The young couple will make their home at Messner where Mr. Tannehill is second truck operator at the U. P. depot.

Surveyors are working on the project and so far local residents are very curious as to what they are doing. Doesn't cost to wonder.

Building is a very popular work on the project at present. Russell Miller and Leo Potts are both making additions to their homes and Fred Smith is again busy on his cabins.

Frank Ofner of Condon visited over the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stollnow.

Howdy Folks: A pretty fair proof that money talks is in the fact that only women's heads appear on coins.

When money talks, everybody listens. Our neighbor says that money works two ways, it talks and it stops talk.

The kind of money that talks must be hush money.

One lady remarked that many a girl marries to make her dream come true.

While on the subject of money, we could say that pin money doesn't amount to much less the pin is a diamond pin.

And of course, the expression "dollars to doughnuts" doesn't carry the odds it used to.

The odds are in favor of you buying our service over and over if you'll just give it a try once.

A North Morrow County Fair board meeting was held at Fred Houghton's office in Irrigon last week. Present were Ralph Skoubo, president; Mabel Allen, Clyde Tannehill, and Buster Rands of Boardman, Don Kenny and Adrain Allen of Irrigon.

Mrs. Roy Partlow and daughter Patty left Friday for Junction City to spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Marie Golden.

Advance-Design Chevrolet Trucks

ON DISPLAY! Saturday, June 28

Here are the trucks you've been waiting to see, with new styling—from road to roof. The new Chevrolet trucks have increased load-space... longer wheelbases... stronger, sturdier frames. Chevrolet's new flexi-mounted cab is cushioned against road-shocks, torsion and vibration. Chevrolet's fresh-air heating and ventilating system, the Cab That "Breathes" (optional at extra cost) "inhales" fresh air... "exhales" used air, giving greater driver comfort.

See the new Chevrolet trucks today. Hodge Chevrolet Company, 2 West Main Street, will be glad to give you the facts about Chevrolet trucks for your business.

And remember... there is a Chevrolet truck to meet your hauling needs.
