

Campfire Girls At Lexington Given Pinks in Ceremony

Mrs. Clarence Hayes
The Lexington IOOF hall was the scene of a beautiful ceremony Wednesday evening when the three branches of the Lexington Camp Fire Girls received their pinks.

The hall was decorated with Indian blankets, gladiolas and zinnias. The program opened with Mrs. C. C. Carmichael playing the introductory music. Mrs. Vernon Munkers made a short talk and presented the Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls with their pinks. The Blue Birds taking part were Deanna Stegall, Donna Graves, Janis Hayes, Barbara Grant, Doris Grant, Eileen Breeding, Pat Stegall, Sharon Cusdorth, Shirley Peck and Marilyn Munkers, acting as candle-lighters walked down the center aisle dressed in formal and wearing gladiola corsages. They lighted their candles from one held by the spirit of camp fire who stood in the middle of the platform dressed in regular Camp Fire ceremonial gown. After lighting the eight candles on each side of the stage, they left the platform. The spirit of camp fire was played by Ida Buchanan, one of the Horizon club girls.

After this the four remaining Horizon club girls, Iris Bloodworth, Carole Jackson, Elizabeth Edwards and Jo McMillan, dressed in pastel formal and carrying nose-gays walked down the aisle to behind the lighted candles where Ed Grant gave a short talk and presented them with their rings. As they entered and as they left, soft music was played by Mrs. Carmichael.

After the candles were extinguished by four Camp Fire Girls, Payllis Nolan, Beverly Nolan, Betty Lou Messenger and Patricia McMillan, Rev. Moreland led the group in prayer.

After the ceremony, refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

The leaders of these groups are Mrs. Truman Messenger, Blue Birds; Mrs. Moreland, Camp Fire Girls, and Mrs. Cecil Jones, Horizon club.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

It is with profound sorrow that Sans Souci Rebekah lodge No. 33 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows adopts the following resolutions:

Whereas, the Almighty Father has seen fit to call our beloved sister, Florence Paul, to her eternal rest, and whereas, her presence and help will be sorely missed;

Therefore, be it resolved, that Sans Souci Rebekah lodge No. 33, in testimony of its loss and in expression of its love, drape the charter. Be it further resolved, that the deepest sympathy of the lodge be extended to the family of our departed sister, and be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.
