IT WILL MATTER 20 YEARS FROM NOW IF YOU PUT AWAY A FEW CENTS A DAY IN A SAVINGS ACCOUNT AT THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

MORE POWER TO ACCOMPLISH MORE WORK is assured in the "Caterpillar" Diesel D2 track-type tractor now in production at Caterpillar Tractor Co., Peoria, Illinois.

Chromed plated top piston rings, increasing piston life. Divided manifold, allowing an independent port for each valve and so improving the flow of incoming air and exhaust gases.

Larger and more efficient air cleaners, retaining the advantages of an old bath with a swirl-type pre-cleaner.

Improved oil pressure control system, assuring maintenance of proper oil pressure at the bearings even under extreme cold weather starting.

New fuel injection valve design with the pressure-operated valve mechanism enclosed in a copper capsule, easily replaceable as a unit, with no overflow lines required.

A new governor, anti-friction bearing equipped, to provide sensitive, accurate control. By connecting the governor linkage directly to the fuel pump rack, excess weight is eliminated permitting the engine to keep closely in step with the load changes.

Three tube type oil cooler mounted beside and flush with the water radiator core to provide more effective cooling of lubricating oil and water, to facilitate servicing and to simplify the installation of blower fans.

In addition to the improved engine both the new tractor and the new motor grader offer other features designed to improve performance and add longer working life.

The use of the new, harder metals and better heat treatment have brought to the tractor improved transmission, final drive and clutches. To the features of the motor grader have been added the advantages of power-operated mechanical controls equipped with anti-coasting brakes to prevent creeping or coasting under load; increased speed in all ranges of its four-speed transmission; and an arched front axle to provide maximum clearance.
