

Mrs. Stonebreaker Dies At Lexington; Girls, Dads Dine

Mrs. Clarence Hayes' death came suddenly to Mrs. Melissa Stonebreaker Saturday morning, Nov. 22, following a stroke at the home of her daughter in Pendleton. Mrs. Stonebreaker, who was 78 last July 4, has been making her home for the last several years with her sister, Mrs. Laura Scott, in Lexington. Besides her sister, she leaves two children, Mrs. Laura Manning of Pendleton, and Chester Stonebreaker of Bly, and six grandchildren. Funeral services were held in Pendleton on Tuesday and interment was made there beside her husband who preceded her in death by many years.

Last Tuesday evening at the Ted McMillan home a father-daughter banquet was held, sponsored by the Horizon club, and prepared by their mothers. The tables were decorated with Thanksgiving motifs featuring turkeys and colonial boys and girls, and dinner was served by candlelight. The program consisted of the Camp Fire Grace sung by the group, and the prayer by Jo McMillan. The welcome address was given by Mrs. Cecil Jones and the main address was given by Miss Nelda Brown, district executive director of Walla Walla. Alonzo Henderson gave the Thank You response. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Cecil Jones sang, "Silver-haired Daddy of Mine," accompanied by Mrs. Ted McMillan. Those attending were Charles Bloodworth and Iris, Bert Breeding and Yvonne, Ted McMillan and Jo, Charles Buchanan and Ida, Lon Edwards and Elizabeth, Alonzo Henderson and Aileen Shannon. Cecil Jones and Edna Ivey, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. Cecil Jones, Miss Nelda Brown and Gordon Smith.

The band concert given by the Lexington school band Friday evening at the school auditorium was well attended. It was enjoyed by all who attended and congratulations should go to Mrs. Rodney Smith, the director, and to the members of the band for a fine concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dinges left Friday to attend the homecoming game in Eugene between Oregon university and Oregon State college. From there they will go to Grants Pass to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Acklen, and family.

Mrs. Alec Hunt was hostess at a bridal shower at her home Friday afternoon, honoring Miss Fern Childers of Spokane, bride-elect of Edward Hunt, formerly of Lexington, now living in Spokane. The young couple will be married in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant were The Dalles visitors Friday.

The high school girls volleyball team defeated the Bombers, the town women's team, 34-30, in a game played Wednesday evening in the school gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Weike and infant daughter of Chicago are visiting at the home of Mr. Weike's mother, Mrs. Alice Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peck and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson attended the homecoming game in Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. Julian Rauch and Mrs. Rudolph Klingler are both patients in the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton following major operations there last week.

Mrs. Roger Anderson and Mrs. Clarence Hayes were co-hostesses to the Amicitia club Wednesday evening at the Anderson home. A new member, Mrs. Edmond Padberg, was taken into the club at this time. The evening was spent playing pinocle and Mrs. Padberg won high prize.

The Lawrence Palmer home was the scene of a card party Saturday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Palmer those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Will Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones, Merle Carmichael, Maude Pointer and Ray Patterson. Five hundred and pinocle were played. Will Van Winkle won high prize in "500" and George Peck won consolation. At pinocle Mrs. Grant won women's high and Ted McMillan won men's high while Florence McMillan and Cecil Jones won low. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson and daughter Carole of The Dalles were called here the first of the week by the death of Mrs. Jackson's aunt, Mrs. Melissa Stonebreaker. Mrs. Laura Scott returned to The Dalles with them to spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Vernon Munkers, Mrs. Laurel Ruhl, Mrs. Kenneth Peck and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer were hostesses at a bridal shower on Wednesday afternoon at the Munkers' home honoring Miss Lorene Van Winkle, bride-elect of Mr. John Ledbetter of Heppner. There were forty guests present and Miss Van Winkle received many lovely gifts. Refreshments of chicken salad, open-faced sandwiches and coffee and tea were served.

Albert Edwards left for Portland Sunday where he will take a course of study preparing him to work for Standard Oil Co.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gibson and family have returned from a vacation spent in Seattle and Portland.

Carl and Bert Breeding have left for Hanford, Wash., where they will both be working.

Edith Edwards arrived here the end of the week to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Edwards.

The Ladies Aid have set the date for their coming bazaar at December 3 in the afternoon at the Ladies Aid room.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner and Sam McMillan were Condon visitors Saturday.
