

Parents, Teachers Enjoy Program and Social Hour at Lone

By Echo Palmateer
Patrons of school district No.

35 and visitors from Heppner enjoyed a fine program and social hour at the regular meeting of the Lone Parent-Teachers association held at the school Thursday evening, March 11. Mrs. H. H. Hargreaves of Portland, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, was the guest speaker. Mrs. Hargreaves talked on the guiding principles of the

P.T.A. which are educational fields, non-commercial, non-sectarian, non-political, and cooperation with other agencies. She also explained the four-point program—school education, health program, world understanding, and parent-teacher study groups. The program, in charge of Miss Mary Brackett, included three vocal solos by Gene Normoyle, accompanied by Mrs. Normoyle and two piano solos by Mrs. E. M. Baker.

Refreshments of open face sandwiches, cookies, tea and coffee were served from a table decorated with candies and spring flowers, with Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers and Mrs. Noel Dobyns pouring. Others assisting on the committee were Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. David Rietmann, Mrs. Earl McCabe and Mrs. L. A. McCabe.

In the business meeting a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Cleo Drake, Mrs. Garland Mann was elected. It was voted to give a one-half scholarship this year towards the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers scholarship project to send students to any of the three state colleges of education and give a full scholarship next year.
